General Grievance Policy

Regulations associated with the federal student financial aid program include the following requirements: “The institution must make available for review to any enrolled or prospective students upon request, a copy of the documents describing the institution’s accreditation and its State, Federal, or tribal approval or licensing. The institution must also provide its students or prospective students with contact information for filing complaints with its accreditor and with its State approval or licensing entity and any other relevant State official or agency that would appropriately handle a student’s complaint.” The following paragraphs and links fulfill these obligations.

Students seeking to make an appeal to an external source should use the information below to contact the correct office.

For academic issues, the student should refer to the Academic Grievance Policy.

For non-academic issues,
• Residential students should seek resolution with the Director of the particular office first. If not satisfied with the resolution, a formal written complaint can be sent to Office of Student Development, care of Kyle White, kwhite@okwu.edu.
• Adult & Graduate Studies (online and on-ground) students would seek resolution with the Director of the particular office first. If not satisfied with the resolution, a formal written complaint can be sent to Dean of AGS Operations, care of Patricia Leggett, pleggett@okwu.edu
