Introduction to Oklahoma Wesleyan University

History

The Wesleyan Church founded Oklahoma Wesleyan University (OKWU) in order to provide higher education within a Christian environment primarily for Wesleyan youth. Its predecessor, Bartlesville Wesleyan College (BWC), was established on the Bartlesville campus as a result of a series of mergers, which included Colorado Springs Bible College (founded in 1910 in Colorado Springs, Colorado), Pilgrim Bible College (founded in 1917 in Pasadena, California), and Holiness Evangelistic Institute (founded in 1932 in El Monte, California and later named Western Pilgrim College).

In 1959, the Bartlesville campus was purchased, and Colorado Springs Bible College was moved to Bartlesville, Oklahoma. The college, renamed Central Pilgrim College, held its first classes in September 1959. The following fall, Western Pilgrim College was merged with Central Pilgrim College. The name Bartlesville Wesleyan College was adopted in 1968 after the merger of the Wesleyan Methodist and Pilgrim Holiness churches. In the fall of 1972, Miltonvale Wesleyan College (founded in Miltonvale, Kansas by the Wesleyan Methodist Church in 1909) was consolidated with BWC on the Bartlesville campus. During this process of consolidation, a decision was made to create a four-year liberal arts college. In 1974 the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education affirmed Bartlesville Wesleyan College as a four-year liberal art, degree-granting institution. BWC received accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission in 1978. Planning to expand its offerings to include graduate degrees, BWC changed its name to OKWU in August of 2001.

Accreditation and Recognition

OKWU holds institutional accreditation with the Higher Learning Commission.

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing and master's degree program in nursing at Oklahoma Wesleyan University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (<http://www.ccnaccreditation.org>).

The university's business programs are accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education.

OKWU's education programs are accredited by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education and the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (formerly National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education). OKWU's teacher education graduates meet the academic requirements for licensure by the Oklahoma State Department of Education in elementary education (1-8), health/physical education (P-12), and secondary English, mathematics, and social studies education (6-12).

OKWU's School of Ministry and Christian Thought is subject to the oversight of The Wesleyan Church's Education and Clergy Development Division.

All programs of OKWU are approved by the Oklahoma State Accrediting Agency for the Training of Veterans under Public Law 550. The university is approved by the United States Department of Justice for training of international students. Programs delivered in Coffeyville, Kansas, through our Graduate & Professional Studies division, are approved by the Kansas Board of Regents. OKWU has a relationship with the American Association of Colleges of Nursing.

Location

Bartlesville, Oklahoma (population 36,498) is located 40 miles north of Tulsa and 20 miles south of the Kansas state line. Because Bartlesville served as the long-time global headquarters of Phillips Petroleum Company (now ConocoPhillips and Phillips 66), the city is rich in the arts and cultural experiences.

Campus

OKWU's scenic 27-acre campus is located in a quiet residential area of the city. An eight-acre athletic facility and a 70-acre nature study area are located 1/4 mile north of the main campus.

Academic Calendar

The traditional programs of the University operate on a semester basis and offer a summer school program. The non-traditional programs (offered through the Graduate & Professional Studies department) operate on a year-round, term basis.

Curriculum

Credit courses for Master's degrees are offered in three schools: Business, Education and Exercise Science, and Nursing.

Degrees

The University grants the Master of Business Administration (MBA), the Master of Education (MEd), the Master of Science in Nursing (MSN), the Master of Science in Strategic Leadership (MSSL).

Enrollment

Students from across the United States and around the world are currently enrolled in graduate programs at OKWU.

Faculty

OKWU's highly qualified, full-time faculty are augmented by adjunct faculty who are specialists in their areas of instruction.

Financial Aid

Financial aid is available to those who qualify through the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. Approximately 98% of OKWU graduate students receive some form of financial aid.

Library

The library houses over 100,000 items and a robust electronic resource collection.

Alumni

The Alumni Association includes all former students (who took 24 credit hours or more at OKWU) and all graduates of OKWU (including all schools which have merged with OKWU to form the present institution).

University Catalog Right to Change Policy

The University reserves the right to make changes of any nature to the calendar, admission requirements, degree requirements, fees, regulations, course offerings, programs or academic schedules whenever they are deemed necessary or desirable, including changes or modification of course content, class scheduling, offering patterns, cancelling of scheduled classes or other academic activities.

The OKWU Catalog does not establish a contractual relationship; rather it sets forth academic and other requirements that students must meet to be granted a degree and, in some circumstances, to continue to be enrolled at the institution. While advisors and other OKWU personnel are available to guide students with respect to requirements, students ultimately bear the responsibility of following the requirements.

Students should view the University Catalog for college and program specific information.

The University Catalog is published annually. It provides information and procedures. It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with and adhere to the procedures contained within the University Catalog.

OKWU Distinctives

OKWU believes that its Mission, Statement of Purpose, Diversity and Unity, Institutional Objectives and Doctrinal Statement reveal the distinctive advantages students will enjoy when they choose to attend this institution.

Our Mission

As an evangelical Christian university of The Wesleyan Church, OKWU models a way of thought, a way of life, and a way of faith. It is a place of serious study, honest questions, and critical engagement, all in the context of a liberal arts community that honors the primacy of Jesus Christ, the priority of Scripture, the pursuit of Truth, and the practice of Wisdom.

Statement of Purpose

Foundation — OKWU, an educational institution of The Wesleyan Church, has its roots in the Wesleyan theological tradition. This foundation rests on the Lordship of Jesus Christ, emphasizes a Christian worldview, and promotes a life of service.

Scholarship — The mission encompasses the integration of faith and learning in educational experiences designed to enhance scholarship, life-long learning, career opportunities, and Christian discipleship.

Character — The mission and values that OKWU promotes reflect the aim to develop genuine Christian character in all members of the University community.

Integrity — We promote and expect ethical and responsible behavior based on Biblical standards from all members of the University community.

Servanthood — We encourage care and compassion in order to foster in our students the desire to live out lives of service to both God and people everywhere.

Community — In order to achieve our mission, we operate as a caring, evangelical, Christian community with an academic focus.

Stewardship — We manage resources entrusted to us in a respectful and responsible manner in order to advance the work of God's Kingdom.

Doctrinal Statement

This we believe:

1. That the Bible, composed of the Old and New Testaments, is the inspired and inerrant Word of God and is the supreme and final authority in faith and life
2. That there is one God, eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
3. In Jesus Christ as truly God and truly man, His virgin birth, His vicarious death, His bodily resurrection, and His promised second coming
4. In the personality of the Holy Spirit and that the Spirit's ministry is to reveal Christ unto mankind
5. That God created mankind and the universe by special operation of divine power
6. In the fall of mankind and the consequent sinful nature of all humanity which necessitates a divine atonement
7. In justification by grace through faith and in regeneration by the Holy Spirit, who makes the penitent believer a new creature in Christ; and that, although God holds tenaciously to His own, it is possible for believers to repudiate faith in Christ, and unless they turn back to saving faith, be eternally lost. But by the grace of God such persons may by true repentance and faith find forgiveness and restoration
8. That entire sanctification is an act of divine grace wrought in the believer through an act of the Holy Spirit whereby the Spirit takes full possession, cleanses, and equips for service on condition of total surrender and obedient faith
9. That the gifts of the Spirit are given to believers as God wills for the purpose of edifying and strengthening believers and are not the evidence of the Spirit's fullness, nor are they necessary for salvation. We affirm the miraculous use of languages and the interpretation of languages in its Biblical and historical setting; however, speaking or praying in an unknown language is not the evidence of the baptism with the Holy Spirit (or of the entire sanctification which the baptism accomplishes) and is therefore not to be promoted among us
10. In the personal existence of Satan
11. That the Scriptures plainly teach the bodily resurrection of the just and the unjust, the everlasting happiness of the saved, and the everlasting and conscious suffering of the lost
12. That all true Christians, assisted by the Holy Spirit, give evidence of a true faith by their good works and social concern

Institutional Objectives

Institutional Objectives align with each of the four pillars of the OKWU Mission statement, as captured below. Each Institutional Objective is supported and measured by University-wide goals and Departmental Plans.

Mission Pillar	Institutional Objective
The Primacy of Jesus Christ	Promote an understanding of and commitment to Jesus Christ as the incarnate Son of God, the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End.
The Priority of Scripture	Produce knowledge of the Bible as the inerrant, infallible, authoritative Word of God.
The Pursuit of Truth	Develop creative thinking, cultural appreciation and the objective understanding of knowledge relevant to each discipline of study.
The Practice of Wisdom	Inspire Godly conscience, responsible exercise of freedom and commitment of service to others.

Global Graduate Learning Outcomes

OKWU strives to impart knowledge, skills, and abilities to all graduate students regardless of specific degree program. These Global Graduate Learning Objectives encompass characteristics that are key to the success of any graduate and include:

- Graduate learners will competently engage in rigorous scholarship through rational discourse and thought, analytical inquiry, and problem solving in order to bring innovative and original ideas to their respective domains of expertise.
- Graduate learners will appreciate how the Christian worldview informs thought and its application in both the academic and professional work environments.
- Graduate learners will develop a comprehensive understanding of the practices and skills of effective and professional communication, relational dynamics and team building, and learning to think creatively.
- Graduate learners will demonstrate an in-depth knowledge and global perspective appropriate to their disciplines.
- Graduate learners will demonstrate ability to be creative, analytical and critical thinkers.
- Graduate learners will demonstrate a commitment to serving and leading others as scholar-practitioners in the imitation of Christ.

Diversity and Unity

Diversity at OKWU can best be described in the words of the Apostle Paul as he challenged his parishioners in Rome, Corinth, and Galatia to pursue unity rather than division. By definition St. Paul's ministry was diverse and multi-cultural in that he spoke multiple languages, embraced multiple races, and navigated multiple socio-economic realities. In all this Paul was consistent: He included all, excluded none, and celebrated many members while always emphasizing one body.

- He instructed the Romans to embrace synergy not separation: "For as in one body we have many members... so we, though many, are one..." (Romans 12:4,5).
- He told the Galatians to beware of balkanization: "There is neither Jew nor Greek... for you are all one in Christ Jesus." (Galatians 3:28).
- And he taught the Corinthians to embrace inclusion: "The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I don't need you!' ... Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it." (1 Corinthians 12: 21,27).

So it is at OKWU. Diversity for us is a verb more than a noun. It is the act of pursuing unity in the midst of differences. It is E Pluribus Unum – Out of many one. It is judgment that sees the content of a man's and woman's character not the color of their skin. It is the celebration of the university - uni-verities – uni-veritas: The unity of truth.

In this context, OKWU opens its doors to all people who desire an education grounded in the pursuit of truth, the practice of wisdom, the primacy of Jesus Christ and the priority of Scripture. As a university, we seek to be a reflection of the racial, socio-economic and other demographic realities of our basic region while simultaneously equipping the students we serve to adapt professionally to changes in a global society.

Statement on Human Sexuality

At OKWU we are committed to a biblical worldview that seeks to glorify God, recognizing and affirming Christ as King in every aspect of the created order and in every sphere of human endeavor. There is nothing over which he is not pre-eminent and to which the Bible is irrelevant. As such, our mission as a Christian University is to equip students in mind and character, to help them connect the rigorous work of the mind to the Word's renovating work in the heart – thus facilitating an intellectual and spiritual transformation. The desired outcome is an inherently consistent inner life manifested in a lived-out spirituality that we call character.

In order to facilitate this process of Christ-like character development, we knowingly and voluntarily embrace and commit to community standards of conduct that we believe are congruent with Biblical standards and conducive to a life of intellectual, physical and spiritual integrity. We aspire to be a University community where thoughtful engagement with the deepest questions of life can be examined in light of the realities of our common human sinfulness and brokenness. These (as found in our Student and Employee Handbooks) reflect and express our desire and commitment to help the members of our community to live a Biblical life that is also in full compliance with the teachings and doctrines of The Wesleyan Church, and to, thereby, develop a Christ-like maturity in their daily practices, and to encourage a healthy, vibrant Christian University community.

In keeping with our mission and our commitment to Biblical fidelity, all members of the University community are expected to follow the teachings of Scripture. We believe that the final authoritative and trustworthy norm for proper moral judgments is what God has revealed in His Word. Therefore, OKWU affirms that sexual intimacy is designed by God to be expressed solely within a marriage between one man and one woman. This view of sexuality and marriage is rooted in the Genesis account of creation, reflected in the teachings of Jesus Christ himself, and is maintained consistently throughout Scripture. It is a view based on the Biblical teaching of monogamy – that God designed sexual union for the purpose of uniting one man and one woman into a permanent, lifelong, one flesh union in the context of marriage. God created two complementary forms of humans, male and female, to bear His image together (Gen. 1:27-28), and ordained that the first human pair was to become one flesh (Gen. 2:23-24). These and other similar passages show that God views sex, procreation and marriage as good, and that male and female are necessary counterparts – differentiated partners – in a sexual complementarity. Sexual intimacy and the sexual union of intercourse between a man and a woman are intended for a purpose – to join one husband and wife together into one flesh in the context of marriage (1 Cor. 6:16).

Our marriages on earth model the relationship between Christ and His bride, the church (Ephesians 5:31-33), a melding that the Apostle Paul calls "a profound mystery." This God-initiated oneness, as detailed in Genesis, is clearly recognized and affirmed by Jesus in terms of the marital union of husband and wife (Matt 19:4-6). Any sexual intimacy outside of such marriage violates God's design for marriage, and is thus to be understood as one of the disruptive consequences of the fall (Romans 1:18-32).

Thus, God's design for marriage and sexuality is the foundational reason for viewing acts of sexual intimacy between a man and a woman outside of marriage, and any act of sexual intimacy between two persons of the same sex, as unbiblical and illegitimate moral options for the confessing Christian. Sexual relations of any kind outside the confines of marriage between one man and one woman are inconsistent with the teaching of Scripture, as understood and affirmed by Christian churches throughout history. On the other hand, chastity in the form of sexual purity for the unmarried person and chastity in the form of sexual faithfulness in marriage are blessed and affirmed. Therefore, as part of living out a consistent, Biblical life, one dedicated to the pursuit of Christ-likeness, all members of the University are expected to avoid sexual intimacy outside of heterosexual marriage and to never encourage or promote the same in others. Indeed, whatever one's personal inclinations or proclivities, our identity and personhood in Christ is the same: sexual purity manifest among the married as complete faithfulness and by those who are unmarried by living a chaste life (1 Thessalonians 4:3-8).

Sexual purity honors God. For those in our community who are attracted to persons of the opposite sex and struggle to maintain sexual purity, as well as for those in our community who struggle with same-sex attraction, we pledge to hold each other accountable to choose behaviors consistent with Christian teaching and all concurrent OKWU policies. We believe, in accordance with Scripture, that we are all sinful and that we are all prone to sin in different ways. We believe that God who knows us intimately, all of our thoughts and deeds, provides not only redemption through Christ, but also promises forgiveness for all of our sins and the freedom to choose to live above the power of sin. Therefore, a primary goal is to help each student and member of the OKWU community to grow in Christ in the midst of his or her unique history and struggles and discern how to walk righteously with Him and others along the way.

Finally, OKWU holds to the Biblical principle that all human beings are "fearfully and wonderfully made" with a clear and distinct biological gender that identifies them as male or female. Therefore, consistent with Biblical teaching and with The Wesleyan Church Disciplines, the University does not permit any members of its community (faculty, staff or student) to choose behaviors that disregard or discourage such gender distinctions. Behaving in ways that compromise or confuse one's biological gender identity as given by God at birth is considered a personal choice that is inconsistent with Biblical precepts and the doctrine of The Wesleyan Church, and, accordingly, is not permitted by OKWU's codes of conduct.

Consumer Information

The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (HEOA) requires that postsecondary institutions participating in federal student aid programs make certain disclosures to enrolled and prospective students, parents, employees, and the public. The OKWU Consumer Information is disclosed to you in compliance with federal law and available on the Consumer Information page of the website. For additional information, including requesting a paper copy of any materials, please call or email the appropriate office or visit the indicated websites.

Accreditation

Information concerning OKWU's institutional and specialized accreditations is available on the accreditation page of the website.

State Authorizations

OKWU complies with Title 70 O.S §4103 and may operate educational programs beyond secondary education in Oklahoma. For more information related to OKWU's state authorizations, please contact Dean of Assessment and Accreditation, Dr. Keri Bostwick, at kbostwick@okwu.edu.

Federal Authorizations

Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 governs the federal student aid programs. OKWU is authorized to participate in federal Title IV programs. Application is made through the Title IV Program Participation Agreement. Should a student wish to review the PPA, he or she should contact the Office of Financial Aid at financialaid@okwu.edu or 918-335-6282.

Grievance Policy and Process

In accordance with the HLC Student Complaint Policy and in an effort to improve its service to its students, OKWU takes student complaints seriously and uses them to make institutional improvements when appropriate.

Please use this form for non-academic complaints. For academic grievances, please refer to the Academic Grievance Process on page 35.

At OKWU, a non-academic complaint refers to a substantial grievance or serious concern. This would include issues with people, processes, practices, or policies that have been oppressive, unfair, unjust, or inhumane. Students who wish to file a complaint and thereby request clarification, investigation, or resolution of the issue raised should fill out this form.

External Contacts for Student Complaints

Students seeking to make an appeal to an external source should use the information below to contact the correct office.

- On-ground students taking classes in Oklahoma: Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education
- On-ground students taking classes in Kansas: Kansas Board of Regents
- Online students: Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education or, where applicable by state law, the state department of higher education in the student's home state of residence
- Accreditor (Higher Learning Commission): Higher Learning Commission

Student Life

As a community committed to Biblical thought, behavior, and Christ-centered relationships, OKWU has certain student life expectations and opportunities. One of the primary reasons leading students to come to OKWU is the Christian community that is offered within the context of earning a university degree. OKWU students are encouraged to make personal choices that will reflect their desire to grow in their relationship with Christ. If students need help in developing an effective devotional life, they are encouraged to visit with a member of the Student Life staff.

The following paragraphs highlight a few of the more important student life policies and opportunities for graduate students at OKWU.

Student Services

Academic Advisement - Each student is assigned an Academic Advisor upon matriculation to the University. The advisor is the student's constant contact for all academic and student service matters.

Academic Center for Excellence - The Academic Center for Excellence (ACE), is directed by the School of Arts and Sciences and primarily staffed by English faculty. ACE is located in Drake Library and provides tutoring for English, Math, Science, Business, Bible, Nursing, and Education. ACE is open daily and accepts walk-in tutoring appointments in the above subjects. ACE also oversees probationary hours and probationary advising for students who are on academic probation.

Bookstore - The OKWU Bookstore, also known as Founders Bookstore, is located on the Bartlesville Campus in the Haltom Campus building. Students can purchase required and recommended text material as well as school supplies, t-shirts, caps, small gifts and graduation frames on campus or online. Additional OKWU gear and gift ideas are also available through www.shop.okwueagles.com. The bookstore is designed as a service center for all OKWU students. Cash, Personal checks, Visa, Mastercard, American Express, and Discover are all accepted.

Computer Labs - Computers are available for student use in Drake Library. Printing is also available in the Library for students.

Library - The Library staff works closely with students to provide reference assistance, to help develop information literacy, and to help students fulfill class assignments. More information on library services is available on OKWU's extensive library website.

Graduate Admissions Information

In compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, OKWU does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex in any of its policies, practices, or procedures.

Students are admitted to OKWU provided that they agree, in general, to the academic and social standards of the University. The University does consider character and personal maturity, as well as intellectual ability and scholastic achievements, as criteria in accepting students.

Applicants must be respectful of the Christian mission of OKWU. Individual consideration will be given to applicants who may not meet all of the specific requirements. Withdrawal may be required should an applicant intentionally withhold or falsify information.

Graduate Admission Criteria

In order to be unconditionally admitted into any graduate-level program, the applicant must submit the materials listed below:

1. For students with a conferred Bachelor's degree but who have not yet attempted graduate level work:
 - a. An official transcript showing a conferred Bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university in the United States, a four-year college or university that is a member of a regional or faith-based accrediting organization that is recognized by the Council for Higher Education or a foreign college or university which is approved by an international transcript evaluation organization recognized by OKWU (see International Student Admissions Criteria)
 - b. An undergraduate GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (probationary admission may be granted for GPAs as low as 2.50)

2. For students with a conferred Bachelor's degree who have attempted graduate level work:
 - a. An official transcript showing a conferred Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university in the United States, a four-year college or university that is a member of a regional or faith-based accrediting organization that is recognized by the Council for Higher Education or a foreign college or university recognized by OKWU (see International Students Admission Criteria)
 - b. An undergraduate GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (probationary admission may be granted for GPAs as low as 2.5)
 - c. An official transcript for all institutions where graduate level work was attempted
 - d. A graduate GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (probationary acceptance may be considered for GPAs as low as 2.5)
 - e. If suspended at most recent graduate level institution, appeal must be made through the Readmission Committee OR Probation Committee
 - f. For applicants for whom English is a second language, students must submit an acceptable score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), requiring a score greater than 69 internet-based, 190 computer-based or 525 paper-based. Students who have an earned degree from a U.S. institution are exempt from the TOEFL requirement.

Admission on Academic Probation

Students possessing a baccalaureate degree may be admitted on probation with prescribed deficiencies when undergraduate GPA falls between 2.50 and 2.99 on a 4.0 scale, assuming all other admission criteria is met.

Students possessing previous graduate work may be admitted on probation with prescribed deficiencies when the graduate GPA falls between 2.50 and 2.99 on a 4.0 scale, assuming all other admission criteria is met.

Students on probationary status will not be allowed to proceed beyond the first term unless the student achieves a term GPA of 3.0.

For more information about Academic Probation or Suspension, please see the Student Academic Progress section of this catalog.

Readmission to the University

Former students of OKWU who have withdrawn from the university or who have been withdrawn, suspended, or dismissed from the university must make an application for readmission. Students who were withdrawn or suspended must file a written appeal to the Appeal Committee and cannot be admitted until an approved appeal has been granted.

As part of the Readmission Application, students must submit all official transcripts of all institutions attended since last date of enrollment at OKWU.

Students returning to the University after an absence of more than 24 months will continue under the requirements of the newest University Catalog.

International Student Admission Criteria

Students who require an approved visa to be able to study in the US. International applicants may not consider themselves admitted to the university until they have received an official letter of acceptance and, if applicable, an I-20 issued by OKWU.

- Meet general admission requirements detailed above
- Students whose first language is not English must have one of the following:
 - TOEFL score of at least 87 internet-based, 227 computer-based, or 567 paper-based
 - iTEP Academic score of at least 4 (other iTEP tests not eligible for admissions decision)
 - IELTS Academic score of at least 7 (other IELTS tests not eligible for admissions decision)
- Transcript evaluation of final transcript (documenting graduation and GPA), evaluated by an approved organization, e.g., World Education Services (WES), American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO), International Credentials Evaluations (InCred) or National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) All official, final transcripts unless official transcripts were received by the transcript evaluation organization and is noted on the evaluation
- Proof of financial support
- Current copies of the I-94, passport, F-1 Visa, and I-20
- Provide 50% of the payment due before the start of classes
- Remain current with the payment plan that is established after initial deposit is made
- Students will not be allowed to carry a balance into an upcoming semester

International/Foreign applicants who reside outside of the United States during their enrollment at OKWU are allowed to enroll in online programs exclusively. These students will not be issued an I-20 nor will they have an F-1 Visa, therefore they cannot attend on campus courses.

Undocumented Student Admission Criteria

To be eligible for enrollment, DACA students must meet Department of Homeland Security regulations which include but are not limited to:

- Individuals who came to the U.S. under the age of sixteen, were present in the U.S. on June 15, 2012, and are presently under the age of thirty;
- Individuals who have continuously resided in the U.S. for at least five years prior to June 15, 2012;
- Individuals who have graduated from high school

Application packet must include the following:

- All documents required of a degree-seeker, detailed above
- Be a graduate from a US high school
- Submit an Affidavit of Intent
- Provide proof of financial support and a specified cash deposit in U.S. dollars
- Provide 50% of the payment due before the start of classes
- Remain current with the payment plan that is established after initial deposit is made
- Students will not be allowed to carry a balance into an upcoming semester

Undocumented students are not eligible for federal sources of financial aid. Oklahoma residents may be eligible and should contact the Oklahoma State Board of Regents to determine eligibility. Individuals may qualify for OKWU aid but must apply and meet eligibility requirements.

Program-Specific Master of Business Administration Admission Criteria

No program-specific admission criteria apply to the Master of Business Administration program.

Program-Specific Master of Science in Strategic Leadership Admission Criteria

No program-specific admission criteria apply to the Master of Science in Strategic Leadership program.

Program-Specific Master of Education Admission Criteria

In order to be admitted into the M.Ed. program, the applicant must possess a current teacher's license or waiver signed acknowledging the license program track.

Program-Specific Master of Science in Nursing Admission Criteria

In order to be admitted into the MSN program, the applicant must additionally meet the criteria listed below:

1. Baccalaureate degree in nursing or a non-nursing discipline with an associate degree in nursing from a regionally-accredited college or university in the United States or a foreign college or university which is approved by an international transcript evaluation organization recognized by OKWU (see International Student Admissions Criteria).
2. Current unencumbered registered nurse licensure in the United States. Students must be licensed in the state in which their practicum and capstone project are implemented.
3. Completion of an undergraduate bachelor's level Statistics course with a grade of "C-" or better.
4. Completion of an undergraduate bachelor's level Health Assessment course with a grade of "C" or better only if enrolling in the Nursing Education track.

Applicants without pre-requisite courses may be admitted on probation and allowed to take Statistics and Health Assessment concurrently within the first 12 hours of program-specific MSN coursework.

Graduate Academic Affairs Committee

The Graduate Academic Affairs Committee (GAC) operates as a subcommittee under the Academic Affairs Committee (AAC). This committee functions in the area of academic policies and procedures, as they relate to the Graduate Programs, including issues of curriculum and academic policy development or revision. It is amenable to the AAC in matters of graduate academic policy, graduate program development and revision, and related matters pertaining to graduate academic programming. In addition, the GAC is authorized to make final decisions on behalf of the Faculty Council in the following areas: approval of new graduate courses, disposing of graduate student academic petitions, evaluating graduation eligibility of graduate students, and establishing its own sub-committees as needed.

Financial Aid Information

The Office of Financial Aid assists students who are eligible for both need-based and non-need based aid in the forms of grants, scholarships, and loans. Financial need, fund availability, student classification, and academic performance are factors that help determine the type and amount of aid packaged to each student.

Each year, students must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to qualify to receive federal and state aid. OKWU (Code #003151) must be listed as a college to receive the FAFSA information. By listing OKWU on the FAFSA, the Office of Financial Aid will be able to determine a student's eligibility for Federal Student Aid.

The Office of Financial Aid recommends filing the FAFSA as close to October 1 as possible to be considered for all available aid. Prior-prior year income data will be used to complete the current year FAFSA.

Institutional Aid

At OKWU, institutional aid is not available to graduate students.

Return of Title IV Funds Policy

The Higher Education Amendments of 1998 defines the formula for calculating the amount of aid a student and school can retain when the student withdraws from all classes. Students who withdraw from all classes prior to completing more than 60% of a semester will have their eligibility for aid recalculated based on the percent of the term completed. The Office of Financial Aid encourages students considering withdrawing to read the Return of Title IV Funds (R2T4) Policy carefully. This policy is available by contacting the Office of Financial Aid.

Graduate student example: A student is enrolled in two courses that are eight weeks in length. To calculate the percentage of aid, the Office of Financial Aid will count the days attended and divide it by the total days scheduled in the term (two eight-week courses = 70 days). The student will be eligible for that percentage of federal aid if less than 60.1%. A student with more than 60% may not have a recalculation of aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Financial Aid Procedures

Federal regulations (CRF 668.16) require that a student maintains satisfactory academic progress in the course of study being pursued, according to the standards and practices of the institution in which he/she is enrolled, in order to receive aid under the Higher Education Act. For graduate students, these programs at OKWU include the Direct Unsubsidized Loan. OKWU has also adopted the following (Title IV) Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy to govern its institutional-based financial aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) will be measured at the end of each term. All students participating in the Title IV program will be evaluated to determine if SAP is being maintained. SAP will be measured on both a qualitative and quantitative standard.

Qualitative Standard

GPA must be maintained according to the following:

- A Cumulative GPA at or above a 3.0 is required
- A Term GPA at or above a 2.0 is required

Quantitative Standard

Students must maintain pace of progression and be on track according to the maximum timeframe at the end of each term.

- Pace of Progression: Student must earn 67% of credits attempted cumulatively. To calculate, the credits earned will be divided by the credits attempted.
- Maximum Timeframe: Student must earn his/her degree in 150% of the published credit requirement. To calculate, the credits required for the degree will be multiplied by 150%. This is the maximum number of hours for which a student is eligible for aid.

Financial Aid Warning

The following scenarios will result in a student being placed on Financial Aid Warning at the end of the term:

- A student fails to achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.0
- A student has a term GPA below a 2.0 GPA
- A student failed to meet the quantitative standard(s)

A student may still receive federal financial aid during the Warning status. This status will only last one term. There is no appeal necessary. If the student meets both the quantitative and qualitative standards, satisfactory academic progress will be restored. However, if the student again fails to meet one or both of the standards, the student will be placed on Financial Aid Suspension and will be ineligible for aid until SAP is restored or a SAP appeal is approved.

Financial Aid Probation

If a student has been on Financial Aid Warning and fails to meet SAP standard(s), the student will be ineligible for federal aid. Financial Aid Probation is for students who have failed to meet the standards after the warning period and been granted a successful appeal of their ineligibility. If granted, the appeal committee will create an academic plan which will define the required components of continued eligibility and will specify the length of the academic plan. If the student maintains the requirements of the plan or if SAP standards are met, the student will regain eligibility. If a student fails to meet the requirements of the academic plan, the student will be ineligible for aid until SAP is restored.

Financial Aid Suspension

The following scenarios will result in a student being placed on Financial Aid Suspension at the end of the term:

- A student fails to achieve a cumulative GPA of 3.0 within the next term after being placed on academic probation or academic warning
- A student has two consecutive terms below a 2.0 GPA
- A student has a 0.0 term GPA
- The student failed to meet the quantitative standard(s)

Suspended students are ineligible to receive financial aid from OKWU. Eligibility may be restored by attempting and earning credits to meet the minimum SAP standards or by having an appeal granted.

Appeal Process

Students have the right to appeal their suspension of financial aid if they have mitigating circumstances that prevented them from making SAP. Mitigating circumstances may include a death in the family, a severe injury or illness to the student or other special circumstances. The appeal must explain why he/she failed to make Satisfactory Academic Progress, documentation to support this circumstance, and what has changed that will allow him/her to make satisfactory progress at the next evaluation. If a student has both Financial Aid and Academic suspension, only one appeal is necessary for both offices and may be submitted to the student's Academic Advisor. If the student has only a Financial Aid suspension, the student may upload the appeal at <https://www.okwu.edu/upload/>.

A student who wishes to appeal must do so in writing with supportive documentation. The written appeal must be completed using the SAP appeal form and must be completed within 48 business hours from receiving the notification or be de-enrolled if currently scheduled in classes. This appeal will go before an appeal committee which consists of a representative from, at a minimum, the following offices: VP for Enrollment Management, Assistant Provost, GPS Office Representative, Registrar, Director of Financial Aid, Director of ACE, Representative from Student Development, Other members as requested by Appeal Committee (Ex - Graduate Dean, Dean of Nursing). The Appeal Committee's decision is final.

If granted, the student will be placed on Financial Aid Probation and will be eligible for aid for one term. His/her academic progress will be evaluated at the end of the next term. In addition, the appeal committee may create an academic plan which will define the required components of continued eligibility and will specify the length of the academic plan. If the student maintains the requirements of the plan or if SAP standards are met, the student will regain eligibility. If a student fails to meet the requirements of the academic plan and the student does not meet the SAP standards, the student will be ineligible for aid until SAP is restored.

If a student does not appeal within 48 hours, OKWU will proceed with withdrawing the student and reporting the withdrawal to the Department of Education.

Treated as attempted but not earned credits with no GPA implication. Once an incomplete grade is posted, SAP will be recalculated.

Withdrawals (W)

Treated as attempted but not earned credits with no GPA implication

Complete withdrawal within a term

If a student withdraws from an entire term with all Ws, it will be treated as a withdrawal. However, because GPA is calculated with WPs and WFs, these will be treated as earned grades and warning and suspension statuses will apply.

Remedial Courses

Treated as attempted and earned credits with no GPA implication. These will not count in total credits.

Repeated Courses

Federal regulations limit the number of times a student may repeat a course and receive federal financial aid for that course. The regulations state that a student may receive federal aid when repeating a course that was previously failed regardless of the number of times the course was attempted and failed. Once the passing grade is received, the student may receive federal financial aid for only one repeat of the course.

Example of repeated coursework that may be counted towards enrollment status:

- Student receives a failing grade. He/she may repeat a failed course until it is passed.
- Student receives a passing grade. He/she may repeat a passed course one time.

Example of repeated coursework that may not be counted towards enrollment status:

- Student receives a grade of 'D' then repeats the course and receives another grade of 'D'. If the student decides to take the course a third time, the course would not count towards his/her enrollment status.

For SAP, a repeated course will calculate at face value within the term. However, the higher grade will be used to calculate cumulative GPA, cumulative attempted credits, and cumulative GPA credits.

Transfer Credit

Only courses in which a C- or higher has been earned will be posted to the transcript. Transfer credits will be treated as attempted and earned. Transfer work is considered toward the above requirements.

For all majors except nursing, courses for which a passing/satisfactory grade in the spring 2020 term, presumably due to COVID, will be transcribed as a passed course without GPA impact. When transcribed, these courses will fulfill degree requirements. Nursing students may reach out to the School of Nursing regarding transfer credit and required documentation.

Non-degree Coursework

If a course is not required for the student's degree, these hours cannot be used to determine enrollment status. Therefore, it is important to review degree requirements with an advisor and notify the Office of Financial Aid if enrolled in any non-degree courses.

Enrollment Status

For graduate students: Full-time status is 9 or more hours. Half-time status is 6-8 hours. Less than half-time status is 5 or fewer hours. OKWU financial aid will adjust a student's financial aid based upon a change in enrollment status when notice is received.

Student Accounts Information

General Information

Once students have completed the registration process (or have started attending classes), they are considered “enrolled” for financial purposes and, thus, are responsible to pay related charges at the beginning of each term or session or make other satisfactory arrangements. This is required for continued enrollment at OKWU (the “University”). Payments and other financial arrangements are to be made in the Student Accounts Office. Students who find it necessary to withdraw from the University before the end of a course or term must follow withdrawal procedures and arrange with the Financial Aid Office and Student Accounts Office for payment of all bills in order to secure honorable dismissal.

Withdrawal

Students may voluntarily withdraw from a course after the start of the second session of a course through the start of the last two sessions of the course. Students wishing to withdraw from course must notify the Academic Advisor by completing an official withdrawal form or withdrawing online and submitting for advisor approval. A 'W' grade will be recorded on the transcript as attempted but not earned; GPA is not affected. Withdrawal from a course(s) may affect the amount of the financial aid a student is entitled to receive. Arrangements must be made with Student Accounts for payment of all remaining charges. No withdrawal is permitted in the last two weeks of any GPS course.

(Withdrawals are subject to fees and tuition as outlined in the Student Accounts Information section.)

Credit Policy

OKWU has established a credit policy within the guidelines provided by section HEA 484B of the Higher Education Act. The regulations of the Act are available for review in the Financial Aid Office.

When a student withdraws from a course or program, credits of applicable charges will be applied to the student's account. Fees are only credited to the student's account if the course is dropped at least 30 days prior to the course start date. An exception is made for students attending an on-ground cohort at a Kansas location; these students receive a 100% tuition and fee credit if the student withdraws prior to completing 25% of the course, i.e. before Day 10 of a 5-week course, Day 14 of a 7-week course, or Day 15 of an 8-week course.

Students who receive financial aid may have aid removed from their account in accordance with OKWU's policy and the federal Title IV formula. The federal Title IV refund policy calculates a refund by percentage based upon the timeframe within the term that a student withdraws. If a student withdraws during the term, financial aid may be reduced. If aid is reduced, the student is responsible for payment of that balance. For more information regarding financial aid, please contact the Financial Aid Office at financialaid@okwu.edu or 918-335-6282.

If a student has a credit balance after Student Accounts and/or Financial Aid has processed their withdrawal from any course(s), any remaining credit on their account will be processed according to the refund policy.

Applying Credit Priority

Credits for any courses in which students are enrolled at the time of withdrawal will be adjusted (if applicable) and handled according to policies outlined in their respective programs' Refund Policy. For students who are recipients of Title IV financial aid, money will be returned to those Title IV sources (in the order of priorities determined by federal regulations at the time of withdrawal) before any disbursement is made to students.

Credit amounts must be applied in the following order:

1. Federal loans
2. Federal grants
3. Outside scholarships/aid
4. Institutional aid
5. Student's account/student

Credit Appeals Process

Written appeals regarding extenuating circumstances may be submitted in writing to the Vice President for Business Affairs within 30 days of the extenuating circumstance. Credit appeals will not be considered after 30 days.

Tuition Credit Scale

In the event a student withdraws from classes, tuition for credit-bearing courses will be credited based on the following scale:

- If a student withdraws through WebAccess or gives written notification to their Academic Advisor prior to the first class session, the full tuition will be credited (Online=by the 1st Sunday of each course by 11:59 p.m.).
- If a student withdraws prior to the second week of class, they will receive an 80% credit of tuition. If the notice is not received until the second week of class there is no tuition credit.
- An exception is made for students attending an on-ground cohort at a Kansas location; these students receive a 100% tuition and fee credit if the student withdraws prior to completing 25% of the course, i.e. before Day 10 of a 5-week course, Day 14 of a 7-week course, or Day 15 of an 8-week course.

Refund Policy

Students choose their refund type when they fill out the Registration Contract. There are three options: End Lender Refund, Hold Refund, and Student Refund. Student Refunds are processed during the term as they become available. Hold Refunds are processed at the end of the academic year. End Lender Refunds are processed at the end of each term.

When a student withdraws from classes during the term, their tuition will be adjusted according to the Tuition Credit Scale and their Financial Aid will be adjusted according to The Financial Aid Policy. Once all these adjustments have been made, if there is a credit balance still on the account a refund will be processed according to the refund type the student selected on their Registration Contract.

Student Accounts – Policies and Procedures

The following procedures govern the payment of student tuition and fees:

1. All tuition and fee payments may be made online through the online student portal or by cash, check, cashier's check, credit card, or money order made payable to OKWU, 2201 Silver Lake Road, Bartlesville, OK 74006.
Note: Please mark any envelope containing payment: "Attention: Cashier."
2. All students eligible for financial aid must have all paperwork completed prior to registration.
3. All students are required to sign a Registration Contract.
4. Students who register less than 30 days before of the start of a course will be charged a late registration fee.
5. Students whose accounts are in arrears will not be allowed to register for additional courses.
6. Tuition and fees for College After Hours (elective) courses must be paid at the time of registration for those courses if financial aid has already been disbursed for the term and there is a credit balance to cover the additional cost.
7. All tuition and fees must be paid before a student can re-enter OKWU.
8. The issuing of transcripts and release of diplomas are contingent upon the student account being paid in full. This includes all tuition, all fees, and any late fees and/or penalties.
9. Students will be charged full tuition and fees when a course is retaken.
10. Students who fail to pay balances can be financially withdrawn and any unpaid balance can be sent to collections.

Books

Students are responsible for the purchase of textbooks.

Locked-In Tuition

Tuition charges are frozen at the time of enrollment for the balance of core classes required for the program/major selected as long as the student remains enrolled in their original cohort.

Participation in Commencement

Students will not be permitted to participate in Graduation ceremonies if there is a balance on their student account.

University Academic Policies

Introduction

The academic policies, philosophy, and practices described in this section apply specifically to students enrolled in programs facilitated by the Graduate & Professional Studies (GPS) department. Currently, OKWU offers Master degree programs in Business Administration, Education, Nursing, and Strategic Leadership. At this time, Graduate & Professional Studies facilitates various combinations of these programs at two locations throughout Oklahoma as well as online.

Graduate & Professional Studies degree programs have been designed for non-traditional learners who must maintain professional and personal commitments while returning to school. Graduate & Professional Studies staff will assist students in discovering the best options for completing all requirements in a timely fashion.

Mission

To fulfill the mission of OKWU, the Graduate & Professional Studies department exists to meet the educational needs of adults.

Statement of Purpose

The purpose of the Graduate & Professional Studies department is to be the best organization at meeting the educational needs of adults. To accomplish that goal, Graduate & Professional Studies will:

1. Deliver the University's academic programs to people whose family responsibilities, employment situations, or personal preferences do not permit them to obtain a college degree through residence on a campus.
2. Deliver academic programs that require mastery of learning outcomes appropriate to the academic level of a degree sought by the student.
3. Facilitate an understanding and application of Christian principles in personal and professional environments.

Official Documents

All educational records are maintained under the student's full legal name. Official documents and transcripts and diplomas will be issued only under this name.

Transcripts and Diplomas

Students who desire a transcript of their University work must submit a request through Credentials Solutions. A transcript fee of $10 per transcript via credit card will be charged.

Transcripts and diplomas will be released only when the student's account is paid in full, loan payments are current, and the student has completed all necessary exit interviews.

Academic Freedom

Students and faculty of the academic community that form OKWU are encouraged to explore and discuss ideas freely, fully, and responsibly in the context of the University mission. Students and faculty are also encouraged to integrate all aspects of a Christian worldview under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. OKWU believes that in the context of this responsible exercise of academic freedom, faith mandates and illuminates learning, and learning clarifies and expands faith.

Release of Student Information and Access to Student Records

OKWU controls access to student information in a manner consistent with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

The University complies with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as it appears in its final June 1976 form. This law protects the rights of students to review their own records and to challenge any of the content of those records. Public Law 93-380 (also known as the Buckley Amendment, the Privacy Rights of Parents and Students—Section 438 of the General Education Provisions Act) permits the release of directory information without the student's consent. It further provides that any student may, upon written request, restrict the printing of such information as is usually included in campus directories.

The law also protects students from the unlawful disclosure of information concerning their academic performance, personal campus discipline, or financial status. The law allows the disclosure of directory information.

The following data is considered to be directory information and may be given to an inquirer, either in person, by mail or by telephone, and may be otherwise made public: Name, campus email, dates of attendance, class, previous institution(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors and degree(s) conferred (including dates), academic honors, past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height and weight) of athletes. Home or campus address will only be released in connection with campus events or to those with a legitimate school-related reason.

For any personal information other than directory information the law requires the written consent of the student for release to anyone, except those persons and agencies provided by law. These exceptions include OKWU personnel whose job requires access to such information, certain government agencies, and the parents of dependent children. Federal law, therefore, does permit the release of academic, financial, and disciplinary information to the parents/guardians of students who are financially dependent. Financial dependency will be determined via the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Under the law, all students have the right to inspect and challenge their own educational file with the exception of letters of recommendation or other material when the author was guaranteed confidentiality prior to January 1, 1975. Positive identification of the student shall be required prior to such examination and the student is not guaranteed the right of privacy in examining the records or the right to remove them.

Academic Integrity

OKWU seeks to develop mature Christian leaders and scholars who produce their own scholastic work, who acknowledge their dependence on the work of other scholars and resources, and who demonstrate academic integrity under all conditions. Violations of academic integrity insult the Primacy of Jesus Christ, contradict the Pursuit of Truth, mock the Priority of Scripture, and reject the Practice of Wisdom. Failure to meet these standards is regarded by the OKWU academic community as a most serious offense against God's desire that we refrain from stealing and that we live honest lives (Ex. 20.15-16).

The practice of academic honesty is a high priority in our community, and the faculty expects responsible scholarship and professional conduct of all OKWU students. Academic dishonesty, cheating, plagiarism, and disruptive unprofessionalism are all prohibited.

Any violation of the academic integrity policy including but, not limited to, each instance of plagiarism, cheating, or disruptive unprofessionalism, will result in a consequence such as; the required resubmission of an assignment, a grade deduction for a particular assignment, failure of an assignment, dismissal from the class session, suspension from the course, failure of the course, or expulsion from the University. Each violation of academic integrity will be reported to the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Specific Violations of Academic Integrity:

The potential academic violations named below do not constitute an exhaustive list, and individual schools may have unique handbooks and policies to which students must adhere. Professionalism and integrity are expected and required of OKWU students. Any student that threatens the academic environment is a violation of the academic integrity policy. Students must respect the pedagogical goals of individual instructors and take care not to disrupt the learning process for other students. Both private and public violations of academic honesty and integrity are offenses subject to disciplinary action.

Cheating: Examples of cheating include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Using unauthorized prepared materials (cheat sheets) for answering test questions;
2. Giving aid to another student during a test or quiz;
3. Compromising the integrity of test materials;
4. Gaining answers to test questions from others during testing periods;
5. Signing another person's name to the attendance record or any such falsification of academic record;
6. Claiming to have done laboratory work or outside reading that was not done;
7. Submitting the same work (e.g. written paper, assignment, or discussion questions) for more than one course without the prior approval of the instructors involved;
8. Fabricating any academic material, content, or other information, including academic records and status;
9. Collaborating with other students in a way that violates assignment parameters.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as offering the work of another as one's own. It is an attempt to deceive by implying that one has done work that was actually done by another. Faculty and students are honor-bound to show that ideas and words match with the sources used and thus demonstrate that honest research has been done. Examples of plagiarism include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Copying all or part of a theme, examination, paper, library reading report, or other written work from another person's production;
2. Submitting as one's own work that which was wholly or partially done by another;
3. Quoting material from any source without proper documentation;
4. Summarizing or paraphrasing from any source without proper documentation;
5. Misrepresenting documentation or resources;
6. Using in collateral reports or book reviews the opinion of a professional literary critic or of a campus friend as though it were one's own original thought;
7. Submitting workbook answers copied from another person or working in a group and submitting an identical set of answers for each member of the group without explicit permission from the instructor;
8. Presenting one's previous work as new scholarship.

Unprofessional Behavior: Unprofessional behavior restricts individual student learning or the learning of other students in the classroom. Students are expected to assume full responsibility for their actions and will be held accountable for them. Students are expected to behave in a manner that is appropriate, professional, respectful and attentive. Inappropriate, disruptive, uncooperative, or belligerent behavior in an academic setting will be considered to be a violation of academic integrity. Lively, robust debate is encouraged, and while faculty expect students to engage fully and to think critically, interaction should reflect the Fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

Examples of unprofessional conduct include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Inappropriate Communication: Inappropriate communication is any verbal or non-verbal language, action, voice inflection, or insubordination that compromise rapport or working relations with fellow students and faculty. Per the OKWU Academic Catalog, OKWU is committed to the preservation of human dignity and the protection of students. Harassment in any form—verbal, physical, sexual, or visual—is against campus policy.
2. Disruptive or Resistant Behavior: Disruptive or resistant behavior is exhibited when a student is disruptive or rude. Such behavior may be demonstrated by but is not limited to inappropriate or degrading words or gestures. In some cases, intervention and remediation strategies are disregarded by the student, and ultimately, the student does not accept responsibility for his/ her actions, recommendations, or errors. The student is resistant or defensive when provided with constructive feedback. The student resists adopting recommendations from faculty or others to improve learning performance.

3. Disrespect towards Community: Disrespect towards community occurs when the student violates normative, appropriate community standards with behavior such as disrespecting the rights of others, violating appropriate boundaries, breaching confidentiality, or exhibiting inequitable regard for fellow students, faculty, or staff because of race, gender, religion, age, disability, or socioeconomic status. The student does not demonstrate the ability to collaborate with students, faculty, and staff in a learning environment; furthermore, the student's behavior demonstrates blatant, belligerent disregard for the Practice of Wisdom or for other OKWU Pillars in a way that goes beyond acceptable academic disagreement with the Pillars and instead rudely and intentionally disparages others within the environment who support those pillars.
4. Unprofessional Attire: The student may also disrupt the learning environment by not dressing in attire appropriate for the setting. Per the OKWU Academic Catalog, students at OKWU are expected to dress modestly and appropriately at all times. Teaching faculty have the prerogative to set a more conservative dress code within their own classroom or work area than outlined in the Academic Catalog.

Procedure:

Once an instructor discovers a case of academic dishonesty or unprofessional behavior, the instructor will begin the following process:

1. The instructor will respond to the first violation of academic integrity by clarifying academic expectations and endeavoring to help the student grow. The instructor has the right to require the student to redo the assignment, reduce the grade of the assignment, assign a failing grade to the assignment, or dismiss the student from the class period. The instructor will notify in writing the Dean of the School in which the course was offered, the Dean of the School to which the student belongs, and the Office of Academic Affairs, outlining the incident and its resolution.
2. Before deciding on disciplinary action, the instructor should contact the Office of Academic Affairs to find out if the student has previous academic-integrity violations on his or her record and, if so, how many. Typically, the instructor will decide upon disciplinary action for the first infraction by a given student. For the second (and any subsequent infractions), the instructor, the Dean of the School in which the course was offered, and the Dean of the School to which the student belongs will make a disciplinary decision while also informing the Office of Academic Affairs. In general, students should expect to fail the assignment or forego participation points for their first conscious offense of plagiarism or unprofessional behavior at OKWU, to fail the course for a second recorded offense, to be dismissed for a full term for a third recorded offense, and to be expelled for a fourth recorded offense. If the disciplinary action involves dismissal or expulsion, the Vice President of Student Development must also be involved in the decision-making process. (Recorded offense is documented and housed in the Office of Academic Affairs).
3. If a student wishes to appeal, s/he may appeal to the Office of Academic Affairs, which is the final appeal.
4. When plagiarism or cheating is discovered after grades have been assigned, grades will be adjusted as appropriate, and disciplinary action can be taken as long as the student is enrolled at OKWU.

Credit Hour Definition Policy

“One credit hour” shall be defined as: an amount of work represented in intended learning outcomes and verified by evidence of student achievement that is an institutionally established equivalence that reasonably approximates not less than:

1. One hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two hours of out-of-class student work each week for approximately fifteen weeks for one semester, or the equivalent amount of work over a different amount of time; or
2. At least an equivalent amount of work as required in paragraph (1) of this definition for other academic activities as established by the institution, including laboratory work, internships, practicums, studio work, field trips, independent study, and other academic work leading to the award of credit hours.

In courses, such as those offered online, in which “seat time” does not apply, a credit hour may be measured by an equivalent amount of work, as defined in the intended learning outcomes for the course.

Credit Hour Definition Practice

While the definition of “credit hour” references the traditional calculation of credit, i.e. approximately one hour of classroom seat time and two hours of outside class work per hour of credit, nothing in the policy is intended to eliminate or impede OKWU’s flexibility in delivering course content, so long as they result in institutional equivalencies of measurable outcomes that reasonably approximate the traditional calculation of a credit hour. Factors such as non-traditional delivery methods, measurements of student work, academic calendars, disciplines, and degree levels can be considered.

The practice of determining credit hours for a new course includes the review of breadth and depth of the subject material, course content, the workload represented by that coursework, the intended learning outcomes, and the comparability of the credit-hour value of the course with other peer institutions. Through this process, the required “equivalence” component of the definition is achieved. The course credit determination is approved by the faculty and dean of the school(s) involved in the course.

Course Numbering System

Each course is assigned a four-digit course number. Graduate courses are designated by numbers which begin with 5000 or 6000.

Learning Philosophy

The Graduate & Professional Studies curricular format is accelerated. Interaction among participants is emphasized, and teamwork plays an important role in the learning process. This approach to learning is founded on the philosophical assumption that adult students have significant skills to draw upon and significant experience from which to share.

Motivation

Adults who choose to return to school after a time in the workforce are typically motivated to give the effort needed to benefit from classes for which they are sacrificing. Because of this motivation, learning proceeds much more quickly, and faculty do not have to spend valuable time urging students to attend to their assignments.

Discipline

From being in the workforce and managing the complexities of both professional and personal responsibilities, adults have developed a sense of discipline that serves them well in graduate programs. Assignments can be completed within tight periods despite busy schedules and heavy work, family, and/or church responsibilities.

Experience

Educational theory teaches that students learn best by relating abstractions to concrete experiences. For this reason, a person who has experienced a work environment and been placed in leadership positions in the past is better able to absorb abstract concepts of management and leadership.

Independence

To succeed in life, adults have learned to seek information on their own from a variety of sources. Consequently, Graduate & Professional Studies programs rely on student ability to independently gather and process information, without having to rely on a “teacher” as the only fountain from which all information flows. Reading and research outside the classroom allow students to fill in the gaps between their current knowledge and the knowledge necessary to meet the objectives of courses that are part of the Graduate & Professional Studies programs.

Activity

The more active people are in their own learning, the better the learning. When Graduate & Professional Studies students interact in small groups, engage in role-play, prepare projects, and apply techniques in the workplace, the learning is deep, and retention is long.

Teamwork

Team learning is widely recognized as an effective learning technique. Peers tutor each other in teams. There is emotional support in teams. Warm friendships develop in teams, resulting in a positive climate for learning. Learning, which would not have occurred individually, happens in teams as a synergy is created. Weaknesses in one student are offset by strengths of others in the team. Teamwork, cooperation, and leadership skills are fostered within Graduate & Professional Studies learning teams.

Community Expectations

OKWU is committed to the ideal of intellectual, spiritual, physical, and social wellness. The University does not condone the use of tobacco, alcohol, or illegal drugs. Students are expected to refrain from smoking or chewing tobacco products in all OKWU classrooms. Smoking or chewing tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, and firearms are not permitted on OKWU premises, including remote classroom locations or any building or parts of buildings owned or operated by OKWU.

The University expects students in the Graduate & Professional Studies program to adhere to federal, state, and local laws. Students are expected to exhibit behavior in all OKWU classrooms (on or off the Bartlesville campus) that is considerate of other students in the program and in keeping with the Christian mission of the institution.

OKWU is a Christian University of higher education which upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning experience and a professional instructional climate. Students are encouraged to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of other students and faculty. The University or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures or may lead to suspension from the program and/or the University. Only regularly enrolled students may attend class unless granted permission by the University administration and arrangements are made with the instructor.

Masters Programs

The degree programs offered through the Graduate & Professional Studies department are designed for working adults who may have acquired learning through college or university courses, through career experiences, through professional or military schools, or through in-service training. The curriculum designed and delivered to enable graduates to deal effectively with an increasingly complex work environment. The programs stress development of the leadership skills necessary to be successful in the professional world. On the graduate level, Graduate & Professional Studies delivers a Master of Business Administration program which has concentrations in Finance, Human Resource Management, Organizational Leadership, Marketing, and Nursing Management, Master of Education with concentrations in Administration or Classroom, Master of Science in Nursing with concentrations in Administration or Education, and Master of Science in Strategic Leadership.

All Graduate & Professional Studies degree programs contain major course requirements. Completion of the academic plan fulfills the minimum requirement for the major. Each course is a required component of the program. The University reserves the right to modify the scope and sequence of the curriculum as necessary.

Learning Teams

OKWU recognizes that key employers want employees who can effectively function in teams, who understand the value of teamwork, and who assume responsibilities for accomplishments in the workplace and for continued professional development. Therefore, OKWU has designed a professional, cutting-edge curriculum in which learning teams play several essential roles. Learning teams provide educational synergy; more learning takes place in less time, thus providing much of the acceleration found in Graduate & Professional Studies programs. Learning team responsibilities, when dictated by course content, may involve activities outside of class and some in-class presentations. No more than two family members may be on the same learning team.

Graduate courses will have extensive team involvement, consisting of projects that last throughout a course. Outside class activities will be required and usually will culminate in team presentations to the entire cohort.

Registration

The registration process includes accessing the online student information system, reviewing degree requirements with an enrollment services manager, submitting a signed schedule for enrollment, registering motor vehicles, confirming financial aid, making financial arrangements.. Students cannot attend classes until all financial arrangements are complete and validated by the Financial Aid Office.

Late Registration

All students are urged to be present and registered by the first day of each course. For students enrolled in an online class, a course may be added up to the 3rd day (Wednesday at 5PM) of classes. For students enrolled in an on-ground course, a course may be added prior to the start of the 2nd session (5PM of the day that the class meets). Classes missed due to late registration are counted as part of the student's total absences. Late registration may include a late add fee.

Registration Contract

Students are required to sign a Registration Contract for their entire program. Students who have been out of the program for 90 days or more will be required to reapply and sign a new registration contract when they re-enter.

Dropping a Course

Prior to the beginning of the term, students may drop a course by logging into Web Access and submitting the drop request to the Academic Advisor for approval.

Once the term has started, students will need to contact their Academic Advisor in order to request a course be dropped.

Dropping a course during the first week will mean no grade is entered for the course. Dropping a course is subject to fees and tuition as outlined in the Student Accounts Information section.

Withdrawal

Students may voluntarily withdraw from a course after the start of the second session of a course through the start of the last two sessions of the course. Students wishing to withdraw from course must notify the Academic Advisor so an official withdrawal form can be completed. A 'W' grade will be recorded on the transcript as attempted but not earned; GPA is not affected. Withdrawal from a course(s) may affect the amount of the financial aid a student is entitled to receive. Arrangements must be made with Student Accounts for payment of all remaining charges. No withdrawal is permitted in the last two weeks of any GPS course.

(Withdrawals are subject to fees and tuition as outlined in the Student Accounts Information section.)

Late Withdrawal

No withdrawal is permitted in the last two weeks of any GPS course.

Occasionally, students who are performing well in a course may find themselves unable to complete academic work and need to withdraw from a course due to legitimate personal reasons. In these instances, a student should contact the instructor and their Academic Advisor to request an Incomplete ('I') and an extension. In such cases, the GPS office is more than willing to work out arrangements with students to allow them the opportunity to complete their work. Any arrangements must abide by the University's Incomplete Grade policy.

Students are not permitted to withdraw or take an Incomplete for a course in which they currently have a failing grade per the University's Incomplete Grades policy.

Financial Aid Implications

Students who are receiving financial aid should be aware of any implications for their aid packages because of changes in registration or enrollment hours. Students are advised to consult the financial aid office and their Academic Advisor before failing to attend a course, dropping a course, or withdrawing from a course once it has started.

Cohort Progression and Withdrawal

A student who is dropped from a course due to non-attendance in the first session should consult with his/her Academic Advisor to determine needed changes to course schedule. Depending on the degree program, every effort will be made to ensure that students remain on track with their cohort. Nursing programs use lock-step cohorts, so students in these programs should consult with their Academic Advisor before requesting any changes to their course schedules.

A student who has been withdrawn from a program must apply for readmission to OKWU.

Upon readmission, the student will work with an Enrollment Services Manager to register for the courses that need to be repeated. Once the courses have been successfully repeated, the student will be reassigned to a new cohort based on availability and be permitted to join the new cohort at the appropriate course.

Students are responsible for all financial obligations up to the date of withdrawal. If students are receiving financial aid, changes in enrollment status may change aid eligibility. Therefore, before initiating a change in status, students receiving aid should contact the Financial Aid Office on the main campus to determine the impact on aid eligibility (financialaid@okwu.edu or 918-335-6282).

Military Active Duty

In the event of deployment, active duty military personnel may request to be withdrawn from a course and/or program up to 30 days post deployment date with no penalties and may re-enter their program at any time without penalty.

Grading Policy

Students have access to their grades through Web Access provided by the University. In accordance with the Family Rights and Privacy Act, grades are confidential information. Under no circumstance will a grade be disclosed over the phone or via email.

Only the instructor of the course can make a grade change. If a student believes that the grade has been improperly given, the instructor should be contacted no later than 6 weeks after the end of the course. If the instructor decides that a grade change is warranted, the instructor will submit an appropriate change of grade form to the Registrar.

Grading System

The quality of a student's performance in a course is recognized by a letter grade. Except in cases of clerical error or academic dishonesty, no instructor may change a grade that has been submitted to the Registrar's Office. A student who believes a grade miscalculation has occurred should consult the professor who taught the course. A student must file an appeal to change a grade within 6 weeks after the last day of classes. At the end of the 6 week appeal period the student has lost the privilege of the appeal process.

Grade points (or quality points) are the numerical equivalent of letter grades and are assigned for each credit earned according to the grading scale (below). For example, an "A" in a three-hour course would give the student 12 grade points. These points express the quality of a student's performance in terms of numbers for the purpose of determining academic achievement, rank in class, and term or graduation honors.

Grades, with their explanations and grade points (per credit hour), are as follows:

A	(Superior).....	4.0 grade points
A-		3.7 grade points
B+		3.3 grade points
B	(Above Average).....	3.0 grade points
B-		2.7 grade points
C+		2.3 grade points
C	(Average).....	2.0 grade points
C-		1.7 grade points
D+		1.3 grade points
D	(Below Average)	1.0 grade point
D-		0.7 grade points
F.....	(Failing).....	0.0 grade points
I.....	(Incomplete).....	Becomes "F" if not completed within five weeks
W	(Withdrawn)	Not computed in grade point average
S	(Satisfactory).....	Not computed in grade point average
U	(Unsatisfactory)	0.0 grade points per credit hour

A student's grade point average (GPA) is figured each term and cumulatively calculated. GPA is determined by dividing grade points earned by number of credit hours completed, less neutrals, plus failed courses.

OKWU Grading Scale

A = 100.00-93.00%	C = 76.99-73.00%
A- = 92.99-90.00%	C- = 72.99-70.00%
B+ = 89.99-87.00%	D+ = 69.99-67.00%
B = 86.99-83.00%	D = 66.99-63.00%
B- = 82.99-80.00%	D- = 62.99-60.00%
C+= 79.99-77.00%	F = Below 60.00%

Incomplete Grades

An incomplete ("I") may be given when a student has done satisfactory work in a course but has been unable to complete all of the coursework because of an extenuating circumstance such as a severe and extended illness or a family situation that has resulted in the student's inability to complete all coursework by the end of the course.

For an Incomplete request to be granted, all of the following conditions must be met:

1. The instructor must confirm by signature that the student has completed at least 60% of the coursework at the time of the request (note: the term coursework refers to all activities associated with a grade).
2. The coursework completed before the request must be of a quality that would earn the student a passing grade in the course if that coursework were all that was required.
3. The request for an Incomplete must be made no earlier than 14 calendar days before the last day of the course and no later than 5:00 p.m. on the last day of the course.
4. The student must obtain signatures from the instructor, his or her Academic Advisor, the dean of the school through which the course is offered, and the dean of the student's major, if different from the dean of the school through which the course is offered.
5. The form must be submitted to the Registrar no later than 5:00 p.m. on the last day of the course. For a course that does not end on a regular business day, the Registrar must receive the completed form no later than 5:00 p.m. of the first business day after the course has ended. (Note that #3 above deals with due dates of the request, and this point deals with the due date for the completed request being submitted to the Registrar.)

If the request for an Incomplete is granted, the remaining work must be made up within five (5) full weeks of the end of the course for which the Incomplete was requested. If the work is not completed within the prescribed five (5) weeks, the Registrar will change the grade to an "F."

An Incomplete will not be granted for the purpose of redoing previously submitted work for the purpose of raising a grade.

Furthermore, students should note that they will need to contact their professor for information about making up submissions to online discussion forums that were missed. They should also note that instructors reserve the right to deny make-up related to online discussion forums since discussion forums are intended to foster dialogue with classmates who will no longer be engaged in a course once it has ended. Additionally, instructors reserve the right to refuse a student's contributions to group assignments and projects that were not submitted with the work from other group members.

Repeated Course

Students may repeat courses according to the university's grade repeat policy. If a student repeats a course, the higher grade received will be used in computing the GPA. Both grades will remain a part of the student's permanent record. A student may not repeat courses that OKWU has discontinued or canceled, nor can courses be repeated after the student's degree has been awarded. If a student has transfer credit on the OKWU transcript and wishes to repeat the course, the course can only be repeated at OKWU, if applicable.

Academic Warning

All graduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 3.00 to be in good academic standing. A student will be placed on academic warning if their CGPA falls below a 3.0 at the end of any academic term or the grade point for their current term falls below 2.0. Students on academic warning must bring their CGPA back up to at least a 3.0 within the next term.

Academic Suspension

The following scenarios will result in a student being placed on Academic Suspension:

1. The student fails to achieve a CGPA of 3.0 within the next term after being placed on academic warning;
2. The student has two consecutive terms below a 2.0;
3. The student has all Fs within a term.

Students who have been academically suspended have the right to appeal their suspension if they have mitigating circumstances that prevented them from making SAP. Mitigating circumstances may include a death in the family, a severe injury or illness to the student or other special circumstances. The appeal must explain why he/she failed to make Satisfactory Academic Progress, documentation to support this circumstance, and what has changed that will allow him/her to make satisfactory progress at the next evaluation. The appeal must also be approved by the dean of the appropriate graduate school. Students readmitted after academic suspension will be admitted on academic probation. Students who fail to meet this standard may be asked to withdraw permanently from the university.

Academic Grievance Process

Students who wish to appeal either a final course grade or the grade of a specific assignment or test should understand that appeals must be accompanied by evidence that

1. The grade issued by the instructor is not representative of the student's work, according to standards set forth in the course syllabus and/or specific assignment instructions, and/or
2. Assigned work and/or course instruction demonstrated egregiously ambiguous guidelines or an unreasonable departure from expectations expressed in the course syllabus, specific assignment instructions, or other pertinent instructional documents.

Students should expect any appeal that is not accompanied by the evidence outlined above to be automatically denied.

If a student believes he or she has produced the evidence noted above and therefore deems it appropriate to appeal a final course grade or an assignment or test grade, the grievance process outlined below must be followed:

1. A student who wishes to appeal a final course grade should seek a solution with the concerned instructor within two weeks of the posting of the final grade; a student who wishes to appeal an assignment or test grade should seek a solution within three business days of the professor recording the student's grade or returning the work to the student.
2. If there is no satisfactory resolution with the instructor, the review appeal must be made in writing to the Dean of the course to issue a ruling in writing to the student.
3. If that appeal is not satisfactorily resolved, the final appeal may be pursued with the Office of Academic Affairs. The Chief Academic Officer will seek a resolution or may refer the matter to an ad hoc committee on academic standards. The decision of the Chief Academic Officer, or the ad hoc committee if so empowered, is the final word in this grievance process.

Attendance, Absence and Class Participation

As an academic institution, OKWU places the highest priority on learning. Class participation, whether online or in an evening face-to-face class, is an essential component of undergraduate and graduate learning. To ensure that the educational experience of all students is robust and constructive, students are expected to actively participate in classes. This includes engaging in class discussions and activities. Thus, although attendance is not tracked, active participation is a part of academic grading for all GPS courses. If a student's schedule hinders the ability of the student to participate, the student is responsible for coordinating with his/her instructor so that an alternative approach is identified.

Class Sessions

Evening program – A class session in the evening program is the designated time in which the course physically meets on campus. In the GPS evening program, class sessions normally occur once each week for 4 hours (6:00pm – 10:00pm).

Online program – A class session in the online program is defined as a calendar week beginning on Monday, 12:01 am (Central Time) and concluding seven (7) consecutive days later on Sunday, 11:59 pm (CT).

Unofficial Withdrawal

The enrollment verification process is designed to ensure clear reinforcement of the message that class attendance at OKWU is important. All students get the best possible opportunity for academic success by being present at the beginning of class.

If a student does not log in and complete the course verification survey within the first 7-day period of a course, OKWU will consider that student an unofficial withdrawal and OKWU will terminate the enrollment for that course. If there are consecutive courses where a student does not log in and complete the course verification survey within the first 7-day period of a course, OKWU will consider that student an unofficial withdrawal from the course and also from the university. A student who is unofficially withdrawn will have their tuition charges reversed; however, fees may apply. An unofficial withdrawal will likely impact the amount of financial aid that a student may receive.

For online classes, the withdrawal date will be the 7th day of the course. For an on-ground course, the withdrawal date will be the date of the first class session. It is the student's responsibility to confirm attendance, participation, and classwork requirements.

If a student fails to earn a passing grade for all courses within a term, this student will be reviewed to determine if he/she is an unofficial withdrawal. An unofficial withdrawal is defined by the Department of Education as a student who ceases to attend classes but does not officially withdraw. If after review, it is determined that the student is an unofficial withdrawal, the Office of Financial Aid may be required to recalculate your financial aid. This may result in a balance due on your student account.

First Week Attendance/Participation

Students who know they will be absent for the first class session should contact their instructor and Academic Advisor prior to the first class session to explain their absence and request that they not be dropped from the class.

Students who notify the instructor before the first session (evening) or before the end of the first week (online) will not be dropped from the course but will be graded according the syllabus on all assignments, including class participation or discussion.

In all GPS online courses, students indicate their intent to participate in the course by completing a specific, designated survey during the first week. Failure to complete this Week 1 Course Participation activity will automatically result in the student being withdrawn from the course at the start of the second week.

Absences

Attendance is not formally tracked or reported in GPS courses. However, because class participation is a part of the academic work of the class, students who miss class sessions should be aware of the academic or grading consequences for their absences.

GPS students are expected to carefully manage their time and personal schedules. Students who find it necessary to miss a class session should be proactive in communicating with their instructor to make arrangements for completing any missed work, where possible. As some course requirements, such as class participation or discussion questions, may not be able to be made up, the course instructor must give their permission to submit any late work.

Any student who sees he/she may have difficulty attending or completing a course is strongly encouraged to contact his/her Academic Advisor and make arrangements to withdraw from the course.

Second Master degree

Any OKWU student with an existing Master degree can transfer eligible hours from the first degree to satisfy up to half of the required hours in the second OKWU Master degree program.

Course Substitutions

Substitutions require completion of the Course Substitution Approval form with all necessary signatures and course description if transferred from another college or university.

Directed Study Policy

A directed study course will be an approved course in the University Catalog. Due to the nature of some courses, not all courses will be available by directed study nor is a professor obligated to teach via this method. However, directed studies will be offered only under extreme circumstances. Strong self-discipline and adequate course prerequisites are essential to the successful completion of a directed study.

- This method is available only to students carrying a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and may be granted only in very rare circumstances.
- The student will initiate the directed study approval process in consultation with the student's Academic Advisor.
- The directed study form will need to be completed, an instructor will be assigned and will need to supply an edited syllabus.
- Directed study courses must be approved by the student's Academic Advisor, the teaching professor, the Dean of the School, and the Office of Academic Affairs prior to enrolling in the course.
- Students are charged an extra fee (per credit hour) for a directed study. The directed study fee may not be waived.

Directed study courses provide individualized educational experiences for students under the supervision of OKWU faculty members. Directed study courses shall not be approved unless there is strong evidence that delay in taking a course would cause an academic hardship for the student.

The Registrar's Office approves the assigned dates for any directed study and registers the student. Credit will be awarded only if all course requirements are fulfilled no later than one week past the assigned date on the registration form. If course work is not received by this time, the student will receive an F in the course.

Non-Degree Seeking Students

For various reasons students may choose to take courses without seeking a degree. Non-degree-seeking students may complete 9 hours of coursework before declaring a degree. Enrolling without a declared major may restrict the availability of federal financial aid. Non-degree-seeking students must maintain a 3.0 GPA while in graduate school. Students desiring to change from a non-degree status to a degree program, need to complete the full application process and meet all admissions criteria as stated above. Admission for non-degree status requires the following:

- Baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution or a four-year college or university that is a member of a regional or faith-based accrediting organization that is recognized by the Council for Higher Education (official transcripts must be provided)
- Completed Application for Admission

Application for Graduation

Students who expect to complete their degree at the end of the upcoming term should complete an application to graduate. OKWU does allow a student to apply to graduate if a student will be within 6 credit hours of degree completion at the end of their graduating term.

- Application for graduation will be due March for May conferrals and graduation ceremony and in October for December conferrals and graduation ceremony.
- Must be within 6 credits of completing the degree requirements at the completion of the current term and must have all courses required for graduation identified at the time of application for graduation.
- Must pay a graduation fee which will be added to the student account. Students who do not complete the work as scheduled will be charged an additional graduation fee during the academic term in which they complete their work.

Graduation Requirements for Master of Business Administration

To earn a Master of Business Administration degree, students must satisfactorily complete the following graduation requirements:

1. Completion of the required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00; a grade of D+ or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements
2. Satisfactory completion of the Capstone Business Course (BUSI 6503 Strategic Management) with a grade of C- or better
3. A minimum residency of one year and at least 24 credit hours completed at OKWU
4. All graduation requirements completed in no more than five years after the date of the first MBA course taken at OKWU
5. Approval of the OKWU Faculty
6. Payment of all tuition and fees

Graduation Requirements for Master of Education

To earn a Master of Education degree, students must satisfactorily complete the following graduation requirements:

1. Completion of all required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00; a grade of D+ or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements
2. Satisfactory completion of the Action Research Project with a grade of B or better
3. A minimum residency of one year and at least 24 credit hours completed at OKWU
4. All graduation requirements completed in no more than five years after the date of the first M.Ed. course taken at OKWU
5. Completion and approval of portfolio defense to Graduate Committee
6. Approval of the OKWU Faculty
7. Payment of all tuition and fees

Graduation Requirements for Master of Science in Nursing

To earn a Master of Science in Nursing degree, students must satisfactorily complete the following graduation requirements:

1. Completion of all required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00; a grade of C- or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements
2. Satisfactory completion of the Capstone course and project requirements. This may be completed in NURS 6423 & NURS 6523 or the extension course NURS 6623*
3. A minimum residency of one year and at least 24 credit hours completed at OKWU
4. All graduation requirements completed in no more than five years after the date of the first MSN course taken at OKWU
5. Approval of the OKWU Faculty
6. Payment of all tuition and fees

Graduation Requirements for Master of Science in Strategic Leadership

To earn a Master of Science in Strategic Leadership degree, students must satisfactorily complete the following graduation requirements:

1. Completion of the required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00; a grade of D+ or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements
2. Satisfactory completion of the Strategic Leadership Capstone course (BUSI 6603) with a grade of C- or better
3. A minimum residency of one year and at least 24 credit hours completed at OKWU
4. All graduation requirements completed in no more than five years after the date of the first MSSSL course taken at OKWU
5. Approval of the OKWU Faculty
6. Payment of all tuition and fees

Graduation Honors

Honors are based on a student's final cumulative GPA. At the time of Commencement, a final cumulative GPA may not, as yet, be calculated due to ungraded courses or future scheduled courses. Therefore, the honors announced at Commencement will reflect the current cumulative GPA that is reflected on the student's transcript. Once the degree is conferred, official honors will be placed on the student's record and listed on all transcripts.

There are two possible distinctions for Masters graduates:

- Honors: a cumulative grade point average of 3.80 – 3.99
- High Honors: a cumulative grade point average of 4.00

Degree Conferral

Degree conferral is the process by which OKWU awards a degree earned. Degrees are conferred on the last day of the term in which academic requirements are met, and will be posted on transcripts at the next scheduled posting date following the successful completion of all course work.

- Fall completion of courses – December conferral
- Spring completion of courses – May conferral
- Summer completion of courses- August conferral

Commencement

Commencement is the ceremony commonly referred to as "graduation." It is a symbolic recognition of graduation for the candidates. Participation does not constitute the completion of the degree requirements and the program is not an official list of graduates or honor recipients. To participate, the student:

- Must have an approved graduation application on file for the current term
- Must not have a balance due on their student account

May Commencement — GPS commencement ceremonies are on the weekend of the second Saturday of May.

December Commencement* — GPS commencement ceremonies are on the weekend of the second Saturday of December.

*See the academic calendar regarding change to the 2020 fall commencement date due to COVID-19.

Honorary Posthumous Degree Policy

Such degrees shall generally be unearned, nonacademic degrees recognizing the meritorious but incomplete earned work of a deceased student, generally a student who was deceased in the last term of work. An honorary posthumous degree may be awarded to a student who dies while enrolled in a degree program of OKWU, subject to the following conditions:

1. To be eligible, the student must have been enrolled in a degree program offered by the OKWU and attending classes and actively pursuing and making progress towards a degree at the time of death, or between terms in such enrollment.
2. The student must not have been dismissed or suspended at the time of death.
3. The student must not have died while committing a felony (crime).
4. If the degree requirements for the student's intended degree are met, the intended degree should be awarded instead of the honorary posthumous degree.

Academic Programs

Graduate Programs of study offered at OKWU:

- Master of Business Administration
- Master of Education
- Master of Science in Nursing
- Master of Science in Strategic Leadership

Chesapeake Energy School of Business

*“Do you see a man skilled in his work? He will serve before kings . . .”
Proverbs 22:29*

Communicate effectively. Think strategically. Lead with integrity.

Graduate Degrees: Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Science in Strategic Leadership (MSSL)

Mission

The Chesapeake Energy School of Business at OKWU is a community of scholar practitioners (students, faculty, staff and community) delivering excellence in business education. Grounded unapologetically in the Christian faith, the Chesapeake Energy School of Business exists to teach learners to communicate effectively, think strategically and lead with integrity. As a professional field within a Christian liberal arts University, the Chesapeake Energy School of Business seeks to advance the professional and academic competence of its students by balancing academic theory with practical application.

School Distinctives

The Chesapeake Energy School of Business offers a variety of majors that allow students to tailor their education to specific areas of interest. Today’s employers often select employees based upon specific skills but promote for general skills.

Accreditation

OKWU has received specialized accreditation for its business programs through the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE), Olathe, Kansas. The Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Science in Strategic Leadership (MSSL) programs are accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE).

The International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE) is a specialized, professional accrediting body for business programs in student-centered colleges and universities throughout the world. The IACBE exists to promote, develop, and recognize excellence in business education. The IACBE’s philosophy of accreditation is centered on student learning and operational outcomes, which makes it flexible and adaptable.

Master of Business Administration

The Chesapeake Energy School of Business offers a Master of Business Administration through the Graduate & Professional Studies department. The OKWU MBA is designed for the experienced working professional who, upon completion of the degree, will possess the appropriate knowledge, practical skills, and professional abilities necessary to fill executive managerial and administrative positions in industry, government, nonprofit, and ministry organizations. An integral part of the OKWU experience is to provide for students a foundation of Christian values and ethics consistent with the mission of the University and which may be used throughout their personal and professional lives.

Program Objectives

The objectives of the MBA program are consistent with the mission of OKWU and the Chesapeake Energy School of Business. The primary goal of the MBA program is to provide a superior graduate-level education that will prepare graduates for professional management careers in either private or public organizations, as well as for positions of leadership and increasing responsibility in business and society. Specifically, graduates of the Oklahoma Wesleyan MBA program will do the following:

- Possess a managerial perspective and knowledge of finance and accounting and be able to utilize and analyze financial/accounting information in the strategic decision-making process.
- Develop and apply innovative marketing strategies to position a product or service within a market.
- Be able to apply organizational behavior and leadership theories in order to motivate and lead employees toward the achievement of organizational objectives.
- Understand and utilize computer technology and statistical techniques as tools for business decision making.

- Possess an awareness of Christian values, ethical dilemmas, and legal processes as they affect the workforce, the workplace, and the business environment.
- Develop a broad understanding of economic practices, applications, and techniques directly related to business issues.
- Masterfully communicate ideas logically and persuasively in writing and/or speech, with emphasis on effective business presentations and executive presence.
- Secure a broad understanding of team dynamics and obtain an understanding of how to develop and effectively lead a team-oriented environment.
- Survey the strategic landscape of an organization and make strategic decisions that position the firm for future success.

Recommended Program Preparation

Although not required, the Chesapeake Energy School of Business strongly recommends that each MBA applicant have completed the following undergraduate coursework (or its equivalent) before entering the MBA program:

- One term of College Algebra and/or Statistics
- One term of Economics
- One term of Finance
- One term of Accounting

Degree Requirements

Minimum MBA Course Requirements: A grade of a C- (70%) is considered a minimum passing grade for courses at the graduate level. Any grade below this minimum passing standard is considered a failing grade for program progression and for financial aid purposes. Completion of the required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 is required for graduation; a grade of D+ or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements. Below is a table showing the courses required for the MBA.

Master of Science in Strategic Leadership

The Chesapeake Energy School of Business offers a Master of Science in Strategic Leadership through the Graduate & Professional Studies department. The OKWU MSSL is designed for the experienced working professional who, upon completion of the degree, will possess the appropriate knowledge, practical skills, and professional abilities necessary to fill executive managerial and administrative positions in industry, government, nonprofit, and ministry organizations. An integral part of the OKWU experience is to provide for students a foundation of Christian values and ethics consistent with the mission of the University and which may be used throughout their personal and professional lives.

Program Objectives

The objectives of the MSSL program are consistent with the mission of OKWU and the Chesapeake Energy School of Business. The primary goal of the MSSL program is to provide a superior graduate-level education that will prepare graduates for professional management careers in either private or public organizations, as well as for positions of leadership and increasing responsibility in business and society. Specifically, graduates of the Oklahoma Wesleyan MSSL program will do the following:

- Develop the solid foundation in theoretical concepts and leadership skill needed to lead business organizations.
- Describe and critically analyze strategic planning theories and methodologies required to lead organizational initiatives.
- Understand and appreciate the criticality of the effective delivery of leadership in organizations.
- Secure an understanding of the ethical and legal environment in which leaders determine and implement decisions.
- Develop an awareness of teaming dynamics within the context of leadership.

Degree Requirements

Minimum MSSL Course Requirements: A grade of a C- (70%) is considered a minimum passing grade for courses at the graduate level. Any grade below this minimum passing standard is considered a failing grade for program progression and for financial aid purposes. Completion of the required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00 is required for graduation; a grade of D+ or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements. Below is a table showing the courses required for the MSSL.

School of Education and Exercise Science

Educators Leading Effectively

Scriptural Foundation: Mark 6:4

“When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.”

Scriptural Foundation: Hebrews 13:7

“Remember your leaders who spoke the Word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith.”

Graduate Degree: Master of Education (M.Ed.)

Graduate Advisory Council

The OKWU School of Education and Exercise Science has formed a Graduate Advisory Council comprised of professors in the M.Ed. Program and Administrators from the public schools to govern and recommend program changes in the M.Ed. Degree for Curricular Leadership.

Unit Mission Statement

As an evangelical Christian university of The Wesleyan Church, OKWU models a way of thought, a way of life, and a way of faith. Its mission is to be a “place of serious study, honest questions, and critical engagement, all in the context of a liberal arts community that honors (1) the Primacy of Jesus Christ, (2) the Priority of Scripture, (3) the Pursuit of Truth, and (4) the Practice of Wisdom”—referred to as the 4-Ps. Although this mission is imprinted on four pillars leading to the entrance of the campus library, the mission goes beyond being purely decorative and has become the heart and soul of the university and its students, personnel, alumni, and patrons.

While the M.Ed. program’s conceptual framework builds on the foundation of the undergraduate School of Education and Exercise Science’s conceptual framework, it is a unique framework that was designed solely for the graduate program. The graduate Conceptual Framework was created to guide and instruct experienced teachers. It is also unique in that it is aligned with national standards for graduate programs: National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and the National Educational Leadership Preparation National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELPNELP). The graduate Conceptual Framework also has a research-based distinctive.

The M.Ed. program itself is designed for the experienced teacher who, upon completion of the degree, will possess the appropriate knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions necessary to be a leader compassionately promoting the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school. It is also designed to prepare candidates for executive managerial and administrative positions in schools at the building level.

Administration of the Graduate Program

The Graduate & Professional Studies (GPS) department is the administrative body for the M.Ed. degree program, making and implementing administrative policy as necessary.

Background Information

The Master in Education program (M.Ed.) builds on the traditional (baccalaureate-level) teacher education program at OKWU. Graduates of the traditional program as well as other experienced teachers are instructed within the guidelines provided in this Conceptual Framework and philosophy of the School of Education and Exercise Science. Experienced teachers have their knowledge of the OKWU framework both reinforced and expanded as they progress through the courses and requirements of the M.Ed. program guidelines.

Program of Study

The M.Ed. Program consists of 33 credit hours arranged in sequential courses of rotation on a fixed schedule. Each course provides a knowledge base and experiences that are applicable to the skills required. All courses cover particular competencies required by the Oklahoma Commission on Teacher Preparation (OCTP), National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP), National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and the Oklahoma Department of Education (OKSDE).

Program Objectives

The objectives of the M.Ed. program are consistent with the mission of OKWU and the School of Education and Exercise Science. Specifically, Intended Student Learning Outcomes for M.Ed. include:

Standard 1: Mission, Vision, and Improvement

1. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to collaboratively lead, design, and implement a school mission, vision, and process for continuous improvement that reflects a core set of values and priorities that include data use, technology, equity, diversity, digital citizenship, and community (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 2: Ethics and Professional Norms

2. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to understand and demonstrate the capacity to advocate for ethical decisions and cultivate and enact professional norms. (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 3: Equity, Inclusiveness, and Cultural Responsiveness

3. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to develop and maintain a supportive, equitable, culturally responsive, and inclusive school culture (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 4: Learning and Instruction

4. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to evaluate, develop, and implement coherent systems of curriculum, instruction, data systems, supports, and assessment.

Standard 5: Community and External Leadership

5. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to engage families, community, and school personnel in order to strengthen student learning, support school improvement, and advocate for the needs of their school and community (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 6: Operations and Management

6. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to improve management, communication, technology, school-level governance, and operation systems to develop and improve data-informed and equitable school resource plans and to apply laws, policies, and regulations (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 7: Building Professional Capacity

7. Candidates who successfully complete a building-level educational leadership preparation program understand and demonstrate the capacity to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult by applying the knowledge, skills, and commitments necessary to build the school's professional capacity, engage staff in the development of a collaborative professional culture, and improve systems of staff supervision, evaluation, support, and professional learning. (NBPEA, 2018).

Standard 8: Internship

8. Candidates successfully complete an internship under the supervision of knowledgeable, expert practitioners that engages candidates in multiple and diverse school settings and provides candidates with coherent, authentic, and sustained opportunities to synthesize and apply the knowledge and skills identified in NELP standards 1–7 in ways that approximate the full range of responsibilities required of building-level leaders and enable them to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school. (NBPEA, 2018).

Philosophy

The OKWU M.Ed. program is based on the premise that the process of becoming a more competent educational leader involves critical reflection and clinical leadership experiences. Knowledge and skills are developed/improved to enable leaders to more effectively work with stakeholders in their communities. OKWU candidates will have the skills required to work effectively and meaningfully with diverse populations and incorporate the appropriate skills in technology. The curriculum engages the whole person in its approach and asserts Biblical principles impact leadership.

Graduate Education Committee

The Graduate Education Committee (GEC) is the organizational body that oversees all curriculum issues, student learning issues, and faculty concerns for the M.Ed. program. The committee is chaired by the Dean of the School of Education and Exercise Science and is responsible for recommending policy relative to the program. The functions of the GEC include:

1. Formulation of academic policy for the program
2. Formulation of the aims and objectives of the graduate program and the design and content of the graduate curricula
3. Formulation of standards for admission to the graduate program
4. Formulation of criteria for faculty membership on the graduate education faculty
5. Formulation of standards to provide quality control of courses, faculty, and student learning outcomes relative to the graduate program
6. Review and assessment of outcomes relative to the program. The committee makes recommendations in the form of action plans to overcome deficiencies related to these outcomes
7. Recommendation for admission for all graduate students. A majority of committee members is needed to admit a student.

Retention

Criteria for retention in the M.Ed. Degree Program includes adhering to the scholarship requirements and retention standards in place for graduate studies at OKWU. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in all work attempted for graduated credit at OKWU is required for the completion of the advanced licensure program. No grade below C (2.0) is acceptable for credit.

Exit Requirements

The M.Ed. Degree program requires thirty-three (33) hours of course work as outlined in the course rotation schedule and the Plan of Study as developed with each student.

Action Project

A scholarship research-based project that is collaboratively developed by the candidate, their school district, and approved by the GEC. The project is required to align to the NELP standards and be based on research that demonstrates best practice for the field. The specific requirements for this project are outlined in EDU 5033, Frameworks of Educational Leadership. The topic will be approved by the M.Ed. Director and a building level administrator who will serve as the mentor for the OKWU candidate.

Portfolio

The M.Ed. portfolio will be a continual compilation demonstrating a composite of learning related to the National Educational Leadership Preparation National Educational Leadership Preparation(NELP.. Candidates will present their final portfolio and internship experience to the Defense Committee. Defense Committee: The M.Ed. Defense Committee will be comprised of the student's M.Ed. Director, who will act as Chair, the Dean of the School of Education and Exercise Science, , and a qualified, P-12 on-site mentor. The committee will convene during the student's final term for the student's oral defense, which will be based on the portfolio contents.

Relationship of Program to the Unit’s Conceptual Framework

The M.Ed. Degree Program at OKWU supports the conceptual framework of the unit by providing quality instruction, service, and research that prepares reflective school leaders who promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school. The M.Ed. Program is committed to preparing these candidates with 21st century knowledge and skills required to become successful leaders in a highly technological and diverse world. The OKWU M.Ed. program is committed to the development of candidates who are fair and consistent in the application of the policies of their school districts and truly believe that the education of ALL children is imperative for successful programs. The program has a mission to empower building level leaders to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school.

Candidates who successfully complete OKWU’s program demonstrate their competence, knowledge, and skills to apply best practices to school leadership and work with multiple constituencies with the ultimate goal of student achievement. Additionally, successful candidates demonstrate caring through their work with staff, students, families, and the community. Compassion and positive Christian attitudes help them create positive school cultures, while strong interpersonal skills allow them to communicate effectively with all stakeholders. In these ways OKWU candidates promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school.

OKWU candidates are also committed to the profession as evidenced by their adherence to a strong code of ethics and their belief in life-long learning.

Time Limit

A graduate program must be completed within five calendar years. If a student has not completed the graduate degree in the five-year limit, the student must then meet with a member of the GEC and an Academic Advisor. Any extension must be approved by the advisor and the GEC according to the policies of OKWU. A new plan of study reflecting current program requirements must then be filed. If course(s) exceed the five-year limit, the student may be required to re-take the course(s).

Degree Requirements

Minimum M.Ed. Course Requirements: A grade of a B- (80%) is considered a minimum passing grade for courses at the graduate level. Any grade below this minimum passing standard is considered a failing grade. Completion of the required curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.00; a grade of C(2.0) or lower will not count toward meeting graduation requirements.

Required Field and Clinical Experiences

Candidates complete an internship under the supervision of knowledgeable, expert, on-site practitioners who engage candidates in multiple and diverse school settings. Candidates are provided coherent, authentic, and sustained opportunities to synthesize and apply the knowledge and skills identified in the NELP standards. Candidates are expected to approximate the full range of responsibilities required of building-level leaders and to promote the current and future success and well-being of each student and adult in their school (adapted from NELP, 2018)

The internship is developed collaboratively with the on-site mentor and the Director of the M.Ed. More information about the internship can be found in the M.Ed. Internship Handbook.

School of Nursing

*Preparing professional nurses to be Christ's hands and heart,
To touch the world one person, family, and community at a time*

Graduate Degree: Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

Mission

Preparing professional nurses to be Christ's hands and heart, to touch the world one person, family, and community at a time. In concert with the mission of OKWU, the School of Nursing seeks to enhance scholarship, lifelong learning, and Christian discipleship, while fostering in students the desire to live out lives of service to both God and man. In particular, the School of Nursing seeks to inspire unselfish service to humanity and to develop personal and professional integrity of nurses based on Christian ethics and an appreciation of the Christian faith as a basis for the interpretation of nursing knowledge.

School Distinctives

The School of Nursing offers two tracks that allow students to tailor their education to specific areas of interest.

Accreditation and Memberships

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing and master's degree program in nursing at Oklahoma Wesleyan University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (<http://www.ccnaccreditation.org>). The School is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing.

Master of Science in Nursing

The OKWU MSN is designed for experienced nurses who are seeking roles that require advanced practice skills in order to function as providers and organizers of the health care delivery process or as faculty members in a nursing education program. The program consists of 12 hours of core courses for all students and 21 hours of specialized courses in either Nursing Administration or Nursing Education. Nurses must be committed to life-long learning and be willing to assume responsibility for planning their professional careers, which increasingly will include graduate study as the route to advancement.

Program Objectives — Designer/Manager/Coordinator of Care

Nurses are designers, managers, and coordinators of care. Nurses must have the knowledge and authority to delegate tasks to other health care personnel, as well as supervise and evaluate these personnel. As health care providers who function autonomously and interdependently, nurses are responsible for professional identity and practice. Nurses are members of health care teams that deliver treatment and services in an evolving health care system. Nurses bring a unique blend of knowledge, judgment, skills, and caring to such teams. Self-awareness and self-evaluation are utilized to enhance professional relationships and improve communication.

In this role, nurses must also be information managers. As patient advocates and educators with state-of-the-art knowledge, nurses help patients acquire, interpret, and utilize information related to health care, illness, and health promotion. Health information available to patients is often overwhelming or confusing; nurses serve as information managers, assisting patients in accessing, understanding, evaluating and applying health-related information. Nurses also must be able to utilize research findings documenting the outcomes of care in designing and implementing care that is both of high quality and cost-effective. Graduates of this program are emergent leaders who will make a positive impact on both current and future healthcare organizations and university academic settings, which ultimately affect patient care.

- Graduates will be able to assess, translate, integrate, and design scientific findings which impacts quality, safety, and overall nursing practice in diverse health care settings.
- Graduates will be able to discern or understand organizational, systems, informatics, and health care technologies which enhance the diverse health care setting.

- Graduates will be prepared to intervene through policy development and advocacy strategies.
- Graduates will lead inter-professional teams while communicating and collaborating with other health care professionals to design, manage, and coordinate care.
- Graduates will design, manage, and coordinate culturally appropriate evidence-based clinical prevention and population care to individual persons, families, and communities.
- Graduates will affect health care outcomes for individual persons, families, and communities through evidence-based nursing intervention and an advanced level of understanding of nursing and related sciences.

Progression in the Program

A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in all work attempted for graduated credit at OKWU is required for the completion of the MSN program. No grade below C (2.0) is acceptable for credit. Students scoring below a 2.0 must repeat the course in order to progress in the lock step course sequence.

Honors

MSN students graduating with a 4.00 grade point average will be granted “high honors” with an appropriate notation appearing on their transcripts. MSN students graduating with a grade point average of 3.80 to 3.99 will be granted “honors” with an appropriate notation appearing on their transcripts and diplomas.

Time Limit

The MSN degree must be completed within five calendar years. If a student has not completed the graduate degree in the five-year limit, the student must then meet with a member of the Graduate Committee and his/her Academic Advisor. A new plan of study reflecting current program requirements must then be filed. In some cases, the student may be asked to re-apply for admission to graduate study. If course(s) exceed the five-year limit, the student may be required to re-take course(s).

Pre-Requisite Course for Education Track

Completion of an undergraduate bachelor’s level Health Assessment course with a grade of “C” or better is required prior to NURS 6583 Pathophysiology for the Graduate Nurse Educator.

Applicants without pre-requisite courses may be admitted but must complete undergraduate bachelor’s level Statistics and/or Health Assessment courses while completing the first twelve (12) hours of program-specific MSN course work. Students admitted without pre-requisite courses will not be allowed to proceed beyond twelve (12) credit hours of work within the degree program.

Course Requirements— the tables below list the courses required for the MSN, which are taken in Lock Step Progression.

Master of Science in Nursing Course Requirements	12
Introduction to Graduate Nursing Concepts (NURS 5103)	3

*Students who do not meet the requirements of NURS 6423 & 6523 in the allotted time frame will be enrolled into the extension course. Enrollment in this course may have federal financial aid implications. One eligibility condition requires a student to be enrolled at least half time (six hours) in a term. If your enrollment will be fewer than six hours in a term, the Office of Financial Aid recommends applying your student account credit balance and/or refund monies toward any terms in which you would not be eligible for aid in order to cover any charges incurred. Please feel free to contact the Office of Financial Aid with any questions regarding this matter. The phone number is (918) 576-7350. Email is FinancialAid@okwu.edu.

Charges for courses not eligible for federal aid may require a deposit and/or payment plan if not paid in full at the beginning of the class. Students are not permitted to receive a transcript, diploma, or participate in graduation or any related activities including the Pinning Ceremony until their balance is $0. Please contact the Student Accounts Office with any questions regarding balances, charges, and/or payments at (918) 335-6268. Email is StudentAccountsGPS@okwu.edu.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Graduate Studies

COURSE PREFIX KEY:

BUSI Business	EDU Education	NURS Nursing
----------------------	----------------------	---------------------

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

First Digit — The first digit of the four-digit course number indicates the level at which the course is normally taken. A 5000-level or 6000-level course is a graduate course.

Fourth Digit — The last digit (5103) identifies the number of credit hours the course carries. Courses ending in zero indicate zero or variable credits. If a course includes a laboratory period or clinical experience, the number of laboratory hours per week is stated.

BUSI 5113 Personal Individual Leadership

This course is focused on personal leadership development. Emphasis will be on self-discovery through validated leadership instruments, the development of a personal leadership strategic plan, inquiry into components of executive presence and understanding the specific steps required to improve the student's understanding of their leadership strengths and opportunity areas. Additional focus will be placed on understanding the practices, experiences, and resources that will drive improved leadership performance and execution.

BUSI 5123 Business Ethics & Leadership

This course provides the graduate learner a firm understanding of the complex issues surrounding the leadership of self, others, and organizations. Emphasis is given to ethics in a Christian context. Graduate learners explore a scriptural model for ethical decision making and apply it to practical situations.

BUSI 5213 Organizational Behavior

This course is an examination of the theory and practice of organizational behavior and management. The class examines the role of individual differences, perception, learning, motivation, group dynamics, teams, conflict, stress, communication, power, politics, leadership, and other factors having an impact on individual job and overall organizational performance in contemporary organizations. Secular theories are examined and then compared to important biblical principles.

BUSI 5223 Managerial Economics

This course applies economic theory to practical business operations. Emphasis will be given to demand, market structure, pricing, and strategy. Additional emphasis will be placed on the economic effects of organizational structure and design on firm value.

BUSI 5233 American Framework for Free Enterprise

This course provides the graduate learner with an understanding of an interrelated political, economic, and moral context of American business. Graduate students investigate five core principles -- free enterprise, our Constitutional republic, federalism, the rule of law, and Judeo-Christian values -- and are challenged to assess how they may integrate and implement those principles into their 21st century business experience.

BUSI 5243 Advanced Managerial Accounting

The fundamental systems and procedures of managerial accounting, built upon an overview of basic financial accounting principles and conventions, will be presented. Emphasis will be given to the preparation and analysis of financial statements, budgeting, and systems of planning and control.

BUSI 5333 Advanced Leadership Theory 1

This course provides a comprehensive understanding of leadership theory and its applications from the early 1900s to present. Students will examine skills and trait leadership, transformational and transactional leadership, situational, charismatic, contingency theory, path-goal theory, leader-member exchange, servant leadership, the psychodynamic approach to leadership, and women in leadership. Students will continue to develop a personal leadership plan, which will serve to identify personal leadership strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities in order to hone leadership effectiveness.

BUSI 5343 Advanced Leadership Theory 2

This course explores team dynamics, team membership, and the processes that lead to high performing groups and teams. Emphasis will be on team selection, formation, and the factors that lead to teaming success. In addition, this course will introduce students to emotional intelligence (EQ) and the skills and competencies that lead to effective leadership based on its premise. Graduate learners will explore how to apply EQ to leadership scenarios, will understand the business case for EQ, secure a solid understanding of its components and will employ the four components of EQ in leadership, and identify ways to improve their own levels of EQ.

BUSI 5453 Quantitative Analysis

This course integrates statistical concepts, procedures, and software with business applications to assist in problem analysis and managerial decision making. Topics include descriptive statistics, tests of hypotheses, linear regression, analysis of variance, and contingency analysis.

BUSI 5503 Strategic Marketing Management

This is an advanced course in marketing management with emphasis on management and marketing as they relate to product, price, promotion, and distribution. The legal and social environment within which marketing problems occur will be studied. Ethical problems specific to marketing will be studied through a biblical lens.

BUSI 6013 Human Resource Leadership

This course challenges graduate learners to examine and manipulate the major activities and subject areas necessary for the successful strategic management of an organization's people. Topic areas include planning, job analysis, law, recruitment and selection, development, performance appraisal, and compensation and benefits.

BUSI 6113 Staffing

This is an advanced course in organizational staffing practices and procedures. The course content covers staffing law, recruitment, selection, decision-making, and initial placement, as well as the strategic value of the staffing process.

BUSI 6123 Training & Development

This course focuses on the development of the individual employee. Graduate learners acquire strategies and practical methods to develop organizational employees. Coverage includes adult learning theory, learning reinforcement, training program design, assessment, and behavior modification.

BUSI 6133 Leading Organizational Change

This course prepares graduate learners for the hyper-turbulent environment of the twenty-first century via an in-depth exposure to organizational psychology and behavioral science techniques, deployed in order to systematically bring about high-performing organizations. The course uses the "learning by doing" technique to help graduate learners improve organizational effectiveness by means of behavior modification and individual self-actualization.

BUSI 6143 Applied Leadership

This course is designed to emphasize the philosophical and historical foundations of leadership in practice. Particular focus will be given to the relationships that exist among the theories of leadership, how these theories of leadership are applied, and the moral-ethical factors associated with effective leadership. A variety of teaching techniques will be employed and will involve a high degree of classroom participation and will require student participation in intensive group situations. Classes will actively involve students through lectures, seminar-style discussions, reading assignments, movies, debates, and guest speakers. Special focus will be given to the visioning process and enabling others.

BUSI 6223 Corporate Financial Management

This course is an intensive study of the finance function in the corporate world including the financial environment and relevant financial ratios. Emphasis will be given to financial planning, control, and problem solving of various management dilemmas as defined by selected cases.

BUSI 6233 Strategic Planning and Execution

In this course, graduate learners examine the strategic planning process and the principles of successfully executing strategic organizational initiatives. Students will study the leader's role in developing and executing on an organization's strategic plan. In addition, students will explore strategic processes that influence the direction of an organization. Graduate learners will acquire techniques for defining both the mission and objectives of an organization, understanding competitive forces and industry dynamics, analyzing components of a sustained competitive advantage, matching organizational strengths with environmental opportunities, and developing strategies and policies to achieve the organization's mission as well as balance the interests of relevant stakeholders.

BUSI 6413 International Finance

This course is designed to allow students to explore the international financial environment, including international financial markets and the international flow of funds. Other topics include exchange rate behavior and risk management, financing international trade, international cash management, direct foreign investment, multinational capital budgeting, and country risk analysis.

BUSI 6423 Financial Institutions & Markets

This course teaches the advanced finance student to analyze the risks faced by investors and savers interacting through financial institutions and financial markets, as well as strategies that can be adopted for controlling and managing risks. Special emphasis is put on new areas of operations in financial markets and institutions such as asset securitization, off-balance-sheet activities, and globalization of financial services.

BUSI 6433 International Marketing

This course examines the challenges and prospects of global markets and the pressures of competition on an international scale. Various aspects of global marketing will be surveyed such as: markets and buyers, advertising, promotion (personal selling, public relations, and sales promotion), direct marketing, internet marketing, and database marketing. Principles of managerial marketing will be applied to the global environment with an emphasis on understanding cultural complexities and obstacles.

BUSI 6443 Advertising & Public Relations

This course challenges the graduate learners to examine the various philosophies and methods of advertising and public relations. Advertising design techniques and the use of the internet and other technologies will also be explored. Public relations will be studied in relationship to building and improving an organization's brand through favorable publicity.

BUSI 6503 Strategic Management

This is a capstone course designed to summarize MBA coursework and provide graduate learners with interrelated cases for study and analysis. In this course, graduate learners examine strategic processes that influence the direction of an organization. Graduate learners acquire techniques for defining the mission and objectives of an organization, understanding competitive forces and industry dynamics, analyzing components of a sustained competitive advantage, matching organizational strengths with environmental opportunities, and developing strategies and policies to achieve the organization's mission and balance the interests of relevant stakeholders. All other courses in the MBA program must be complete prior to enrolling in this course.

BUSI 6603 Strategic Leadership Capstone

This course provides a culminating experience to the leadership theories and concepts learned in the MS in Strategic Leadership program. The course, which concludes the program, focuses on research, development, and analysis of a leadership specific research domain of a professional interest to the student. The capstone is a significant research project where students select a topic that allows the demonstration of previously learned leadership theories, styles, and strategies. The results of the project will be presented in a detailed written research paper and a presentation of findings. The capstone has two overarching goals:

- 1) Allow for students to sum up their leadership studies by combining ideas from prior coursework with additional, directed secondary research, 2) Allow students to enhance not only their understanding of leadership but acquire expertise through the mastery and presentation of their research. An expert level of knowledge on a particular leadership topic is expected.

EDU 5023 Educational Tech/App in School Setting

This course provides for an understanding and applications of appropriate technology in the areas of teaching, record management, and student assessment. The content of this course will involve the creation of a web page and development of the candidate's skills in the operation of the technologies that are appropriate for the classroom and office environments. Web 2.0 applications, use of I-Pad technology, and other appropriate teaching tools will be taught and experienced by the student in developing the appropriate technology for embracing the 21st Century Learner. (8 weeks)

EDU 5033 Frameworks of Educational Leadership

This course covers several introductory aspects of the program and the concepts of educational leadership theories and practices. A major aspect of this course will be in establishing and maintaining a quality vision for learning as demonstrated through implementation of new concepts, development of better teaching practices, and the assessment of our progress in attaining those vision goals in the programs of the classroom and within the communities that we service. The candidates will be introduced to the OKWU model and mission for a Christian World View of Leadership, the examination of some applicable contemporary educational issues that are facing our educational system at this time. The initial Internship component is incorporated into this course and is designed to set the stage as a continuous and integrated part of the program which introduces the candidate to the standards for the program as identified by NELP, ISLLC, and the NETS-A. Each course in the Leadership Core will include an Internship component that connects to an action project that is developed in EDU 5033. (8 weeks)

EDU 5213 Educational Research and Application

This course is designed to develop research knowledge and skills in the educational practitioner. The course will provide participants with a foundation for understanding data-driven decision making and the continuous change and improvement process. (8 weeks)

EDU 5513 Leadership for Curriculum Development

This course seeks to assist candidates in the development of the knowledge, skills, and attributes to supervise and design with other appropriate curriculums and instructional programs; develop learner centered school cultures; assess outcomes; provide student personnel services; and plan with faculty professional development activities aimed at improving education. The emphasis of leadership is directed toward the supervision of instruction and the best practices of teaching. Candidates will engage in the actual process of supervising quality teaching practice. (8 weeks)

EDU 5523 Advanced Org and Classroom Management

An advanced study of applications of classroom management approaches. An additional review will include the total organizational structure of schools and the role that plays in the general management of adults as well as students. Candidates will be engaged in designing a plan for management for both the individual classroom and the organizational structure for their schools. (8 weeks)

EDU 5533 Integrating Technology in Instructional Program

Integrating technology into the curriculum requires both technological skill and knowledge of curricular and pedagogical issues entailed in the process. This course will help the master's candidate to examine current developments and issues in assessment. Developments in technology and its application to assessment requirements will be reviewed. Research in current issues, trends and applications of assessment will be examined. In this course candidates will also examine uses of technology to market their schools and programs to increase communication with all stakeholders. Candidates will learn to use various technology to communicate with the school and business community. A project to apply current theory into an assessment action plan will be required. (8 weeks)

EDU 5613 School Law and Policy Application

This course is a study of the legal authorities in relation to public schools with special reference to Oklahoma. The course will cover aspects of constitutional provisions, statutes, court decisions, and the relevance of Attorney General Opinions. The content of the course will be directed toward the effective application of these legal principles in the formation of policy and the importance of the development of student and teacher handbooks that cover the main points of legal interest. (8 weeks)

EDU 5623 School Finance

This course examines the sources of public school finance, the control of expenditures, and the general principles of financial management and public accounting. This course will examine the structure of budgeting and the allocation of funds that are appropriate for the successful implementation of processes that support student learning. The course will spend some time exploring the ethics of finance as they apply to the educational setting. (8 weeks)

EDU 5633 Curriculum Strategies and Assessment

This course is designed to focus on the underlying principles of curriculum development and organization including curriculum evaluations and current issues and trends in the subject fields. Attention is given to the professional decisions that must be made about curriculum alignment and assessment. A portion of this course will involve the significant use of technology and the systems available to accomplish the goals for the district. (8 weeks)

EDU 5723 Advanced Developmental Psychology for Education Setting

This course provides an advanced level review of human development across the life span and of developmental changes from the prenatal phase to late adulthood. Special emphasis is provided for examination and application of developmental theories and research relevant to professionals working in education settings. (8 weeks)

EDU 5733 School and Community Partnership

This course will provide the scholar with the knowledge and dispositions needed to facilitate and engage in effective collaboration with both internal and external publics within the school and community. Emphasis will be placed on involvement of all stakeholders in the development and implementation of an effective school-community relations program that mobilize community resources needed to ensure success for all children. (8 weeks)

EDU 5823 Internship/Portfolio

This course provides the student a reflection time and a clinical based experience that engages the candidate in the actual processes involved in the role of building level curriculum leadership. In this course the candidate assembles the logged clinical hours of experience for the program along with the review of selected case studies for group discussion and review. The final component of the 3hour Internship is the Capstone Experience where the candidate finalizes the action research project and completes the Portfolio format for the program. The Capstone experience will also be the final analysis of the action research project that had been initiated at the beginning of the program. (8 weeks)

EDU 5883 Human Resource Leadership in Education

This course challenges graduate learners to examine and manipulate the major activities and subject areas necessary for the successful strategic management of an organization's people. Topic areas will include staff need assessments, planning, job analysis, recruitment and selection, legal issues surrounding employment practices, performance appraisal, and compensation and benefits. (8 weeks)

NURS 5103 Intro to Graduate Nursing Concepts

This course will provide students with an understanding of the mission of the school, the concept of collision points, policies to guide their progress, and available student services. It will also give the school an opportunity to gather information related to the students' writing and technological skills and competencies learned in the baccalaureate nursing program as well as assess professional attitudes, skills, and knowledge that will form a baseline for future assessments. Students will have the opportunity to explore their values and analyze how these values and cultural values that impact patients' use of healthcare. Additionally, the course will foster professional role development and professional behaviors, including leadership skills such as communication, collaboration, negotiation, delegation, and coordination that emphasize ethical and critical decision making, which are necessary for providing leadership in the delivery of health care to patients and communities.

NURS 5363 Health Care Systems

This course introduces different health care systems with a comparative lens. It presents a broad overview of health care policies as well as some detailed models and their effectiveness in relation to local and national social, economic, and cultural conditions. Throughout the course, students will learn: 1) various health care systems and their main characteristics, 2) how to assess a health care system, and 3) how to compare and analyze different health care systems.

NURS 5753 Advanced Health Assessment for the Graduate Nurse Educator

This course encompasses a wide array of personal/clinical and community-based interventions, in addition to the broad development and application of social policies that influence the goal of achieving health. The need for cooperation, communication, and collaboration among all healthcare professionals to improve patient and population health outcomes and decrease/eliminate health disparities across all populations will be emphasized along with promoting nursing excellence. Advanced physical health assessment is an emphasis throughout this course.

NURS 5763 Research Scholarship

This course considers research in the field of nursing, including examining policies and seeking evidence for every aspect of practice, incorporating current evidence into practice and identifying gaps where evidence is lacking. Course curriculum emphasizes conceptual understanding of design, methodology, and the development of a structured investigation of a problem.

NURS 5773 Health Informatics/Evidence-Based Practice

This course provides an overview of existing and developing trends and methods in the discovery and utilization of information technologies for a variety of health care settings. There is a specific emphasis on methods, technology, equipment for assessment data, electronic and research databases, privacy, confidentiality and patient care technology. This course considers research in the field of nursing and health care, and the relationship of research to knowledge and practice.

NURS 6313 Management Leadership Nursing Health Care

This course provides a study of change theories and practice, health law, marketing, human resources, and collaboration and negotiation techniques and methods to effectively resolve conflicts. This course prepares students to become transformational leaders and innovative educators. Focus is placed on improving quality and safety methods, performance measures, evaluation tools, and standards of care.

NURS 6323 Health Care Economics

This course is structured to cover key factors affecting today's health care organizations regarding economic and financial management. It will provide the knowledge necessary for health service managers to apply theories and concepts to facilitate making informed and timely decisions, advancing the financial best interests of the organization.

NURS 6413 Administration Practicum

This course allows students to demonstrate their mastery of the AACN Essentials. Students will demonstrate an advanced level of understanding of nursing science and integrate this knowledge into nursing practice. This course contains an Applied Learning Practicum (ALP). In the first component, graduate students must complete supervised practice experiences in their previously chosen focus area of learning and expertise. A total of 50-125 hours are to be spent in the direct care patient role that relates to the student's chosen area of specialization. The student will identify a nurse preceptor whom ideally holds a Master's or Doctorate degree.

NURS 6423 Application Strategies Nursing Administration: Capstone

This final capstone course provides students opportunity to demonstrate expertise and superior level of proficiency in advanced nursing science and nursing practice. The capstone project will reflect enhanced knowledge and ability to function as a graduate nurse educator or administrator. Course work will demonstrate mastery of the AACN Masters in Nursing Essentials as well as the OKWU MSN Program Outcomes. Students will substantiate evidence of achieving MSN Program outcomes in a final exit presentation by validating achievement of the following nursing concepts:

- Research Outcomes, Quality Improvement & Safety
- Patient Care Technologies

- Policy Development & Advocacy Strategies
- Manage & Coordinate Care
- Population Health
- Evidence Based Care

NURS 6513 Education Practicum

This course allows students to demonstrate their mastery of the AACN Essentials. NURS 6543 Curriculum Design/Innovation/Evaluation

Students examine trends in nursing and explore the influence of these trends on nursing curriculum such as the use of simulation and application of technology in the classroom. Various teaching and learning strategies will be examined and tested by students in this course. Emphasis on Malcolm Knowles' Adult Learning Theory as well as principles of Pedagogy will be incorporated into curriculum design components.

NURS 6553 Foundations of Adult Education

This course provides a study of education and learning theories with a particular emphasis on Malcolm Knowles' Adult Learning Theory. Students will examine motivation and group dynamics in learning. Best practices in nursing administration and education will be reviewed.

NURS 6563 Transformational Nursing for the Nurse Educator

Graduate students will explore transformative learning in nursing education and integrate best practice strategies for nurse educators in the traditional and online classroom as well as clinical practice and simulation environments. Throughout this course emphasis is placed upon techniques that incorporate student assessment, outcome measurement, evaluation methodologies, and fair testing practices. Social, ethical and legal issues that accompany nursing program evaluation and accreditation processes will also be examined. This course contains an Applied Learning Practicum (ALP).

NURS 6573 Pharmacology for Graduate Nurse

This course builds on the foundation of pharmacology taught at the baccalaureate level; this course will add to the knowledge and depth of understanding of pharmacological concepts including drug interactions, reducing medication errors, and focusing on patient teaching. In addition, students will focus on designing and implementing education programs about medication and medication administration for patients, students, and other healthcare providers that incorporates evidence-based practice.

NURS 6583 Pathophysiology Graduate Nurse

This course builds on the basics of pathophysiology and focuses on increased understanding of the pathophysiology of disease processes and treatment of disease processes.

NURS 6623 Application Strategies for Nursing: Capstone Extension Course

This course emphasizes the finalization of the requirements needed to complete the Masters of Science in Nursing program and provides the learners with individualized support for completing their program requirements. Learners will work directly with the instructor and their preceptor based on their individual success plan for completing the capstone project.
