

What are on-campus summer Connection Days?

Our on-campus Connection Days are optional and designed for you to experience the best part of OKWU, our people. You will hear from our President Jim Dunn, from our deans and staff, and connect with some of our student leaders. You will also begin to build relationships with other new incoming OKWU students and members of the OKWU community.

Who should attend?

An optional on-campus Connection Day provides incoming students the opportunity to experience OKWU. The day is designed to help both students and parents get ready for the fall. We encourage parents/families to attend with their students.

We will cover details concerning New Student Orientation Weekend (Aug. 27-28, 2022), what new students should expect and how to succeed as a student at Oklahoma Wesleyan University.
